

Office of the Mayor

Tomball, Texas

Proclamation

- WHEREAS the American Payroll Association and its 22,000 members have launched a nationwide public awareness campaign to pay tribute to the more than 156 million wage earners in the United States and the payroll professionals who support the American system by paying wages, reporting worker earnings and withholding federal employment taxes; and
- WHEREAS, payroll professionals in Tomball, Texas play a key role in maintaining the economic health of Tomball, carrying out such diverse tasks as paying into the unemployment insurance system, providing information for child support enforcement, and carrying out tax withholding, reporting and depositing; and
- WHEREAS, payroll departments collectively spend more than $15 billion annually, complying with myriad federal and state wage and tax laws, and payroll professionals play an increasingly important role ensuring the economic security of American families by helping to identify non-custodial parents and making sure they comply with their child support mandates; and
- WHEREAS, payroll professionals have become increasingly proactive in educating both the business community and the public at large about the payroll tax withholding systems; and
- WHEREAS, payroll professionals meet regularly with federal and state tax officials to discuss improving compliance with government procedures and how compliance can be achieved at less cost to both government and businesses; and
- WHEREAS, the week in which Labor Day falls has been proclaimed National Payroll Week;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GRETCHEN FAGAN, Mayor of the City of Tomball, do hereby proclaim the week of September 2 through September 6, 2013 as:
