

Undergraduate Academic Certificates

47

College of Arts and Sciences

Certificate	Department
Actuarial Science	Mathematics
Economic Geography	Economics and Geography
Forensic Science	Biological Sciences and Chemistry
Geographic Information Systems	Geography
Media Management	Radio, Television and Film
Peace Studies	Political Science
Professional French	Foreign Languages and Literatures
Spanish Language Media	Radio, Television and Film
Statistics	Mathematics
Technical Writing	Linguistics and Technical Communication
Television News Producing	Radio, Television and Film

College of Business

Certificate	Department
Customer Relationship Management	Marketing and Logistics
E-Commerce Marketing	Marketing and Logistics
International Business	Business Administration
Logistics and Supply Chain Management	Marketing and Logistics
New Product Development	Marketing and Logistics
Retailing	Marketing and Logistics
Residential Property Management	Finance, Insurance, Real Estate and Law

College of Engineering

Certificate	Department
Game Programming	Computer Science and Engineering

Frank W. and Sue Mayborn School of Journalism

Certificate	Department
Sports Journalism	Journalism

College of Public Affairs and Community Service

Certificate	Department
Applied Gerontology	Sociology
Criminalistics	Criminal Justice
Drug and Alcohol Studies	Rehabilitation, Social Work and Addictions
Rehabilitation Studies	Rehabilitation, Social Work and Addictions
Substance Abuse Treatment	Rehabilitation, Social Work and Addictions
Volunteer and Community Resource Management	Public Affairs and Community Service

The University of North Texas offers upper-division undergraduate academic certificates to meet workforce needs or to provide students with life/career skills and knowledge and to allow for specialization in academic disciplines. Undergraduate academic certificates require 12–20 hours, of which the majority must be advanced.

See “Undergraduate Academic Certificate Programs” in the Academics section of the Undergraduate Catalog for additional information, including admission requirements.