Brittany Roth Interim Head Coach

First Year Ball State '08

Brittany Roth enters her first season as the interim head coach of the Mean Green. Prior to being named interim head coach, she spent three seasons as an assistant coach with the Mean Green, helping the Mean Green to a fourth-place finish at the Conference USA Championships in 2016, the best team finish since joining the league for the 2013-14 season.

The league championships capped one of the most successful seasons in school history, as they finished with the second-most dual-meet wins (7) and second-best winning percentage (.636) in school history.

In 2014-15, she helped North Texas to a 4-4 record in 2014-15, including a 3-1 start, the best start in program history. The team earned all-conference honors in the 400 medley relay and 400 IM.

The team earned all-conference honors in the 400 medley relay and 400 IM. Seniors Krista Rossum and Mona Groteguth set three program records and notched NCAA B-qualifying times in five events. Rossum's programbest marks came in the 200 IM (2:00.35) and 400 IM (4:15.22) in consecutive days at the C-USA meet, while Groteugth claimed the 200 backstroke record (1:56.20) at Incarnate Word's Christmas Invitational.

In 2013-14, the team's first season in C-USA, Mean Green swimmers set four program records and achieve NCAA B-qualifying times in three events. Rossum originally broke the school record in the 400 individual medley at the Houston Invitational and then went on to break it again at the conference championships finishing with a 4:16.95 time. Groteguth set program records in the 100 backstroke (54.02) and 200 backstroke (1:56.62), accomplishing both feats at the Houston Invitational.

Outside of the pool, the Mean Green have received the Spring Scholar All-America Team Award for having one of the top GPA's in the nation in Division I women's swimming and diving in each of the last two seasons. Rossum and Groteguth have also been named to the Conference USA All-Academic team in each of the last two seasons, with Rossum receiving the Conference USA Scholar Athlete of the Year Award in swimming and diving in each of the last two seasons.

Before making her way to North Texas, Roth spent three seasons with the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee men's and women's swimming and diving programs. She helped coach 31 individual league champions over the course of the three seasons and sent the first-ever female in Horizon League history and the first ever Panther to swim in the NCAA Championships.

Roth worked with Emily McClellan, the program's first female, and also the first female from the Horizon League, to earn a spot at the NCAA Championships. She swam in the 100 breaststroke, 200 breaststroke and 200 IM at the 2011 NCAA Championships. McClellan would also post the league's first ever NCAA A-qualifying times in the 100 and 200 breaststroke and just missed honorable mention All-American honors at the 2012 NCAA Championships. That same season, she also helped the men's program finish with an undefeated record.

Prior to her career in Milwaukee, Roth spent two years at Frankfort High School in Frankfort, Indiana, where she was the high school boys' and girls' swimming and diving head coach, as well as the coach of the USA Swimming Sugar Creek Swim Club Satellite program.

Roth was a four-year swimmer at Ball State, where she qualified for the 2006 U.S. Open in the 100 and 200 backstroke. As team co-captain her senior year, she claimed the team's High Point Award and twice earned Mid-American Conference Academic All-Team honors and was nominated MAC Senior of the Year.

In addition to claiming all-league second-team honors on two occasions, she broke school records in both the 100 and 200 backstroke and was a part of a record-setting 400 medley relay team. After her four years of eligibility had passed, she worked a season as the student assistant at Ball State.

Brittany Roth is a native of Crawfordsville, Indiana, and her husband, Ben, works in the Dallas-Fort Worth area as a firefighter.

Rachel Friel enters her first-year as an assistant coach for the North Texas swimming and diving program.

Her hiring completes the 2016 staff under interim head coach Brittany Roth.

"I am so excited to have Rachel on board as our assistant coach," Roth said. "She brings a natural energy to the sport that is not only contagious but empowering, and I am looking forward to her working with our athletes."

ROFILES assistant coaches

Friel heads to North Texas after coaching at Texas Ford Aquatics in Frisco for the last 10 months.

"I'm honored to have this opportunity to work alongside head coach Brittany Roth and be a part of the Mean Green family," Friel said. "I am excited to continue the success North Texas swimming and diving has seen and help the athletes move forward and progress to the next level."

Friel brings an impressive résumé to Denton.

The Hong Kong native competed collegiately at BYU, where she garnered the Mountain West conference's Swimmer of the Year award two times as well as competed in the NCAA Division I National Championships three separate times.

She competed in the 200 butterfly and both the 200 and 400 individual medley.

In addition to a successful collegiate career, Friel represented Hong Kong in several international competitions including the World University games in Serbia (2009) and again in Shenzhen China (2011). Friel also competed in the 2008 Olympic trials in Hong Kong and the USA.

Once she completed her eligibility at BYU in 2011, Friel stayed in Provo, Utah, as a graduate assistant before accepting the swimming head coaching at Maple Mountain High School in August 2012.

"Coaching is my passion," Friel explained. "I plan on doing whatever I can to help our athletes achieve their goals in and out of the pool."

In her coaching career, Friel has coached six Olympic trial qualifiers and two men who went on to compete in the 2012 Olympic Games in London representing El Salvador and Bolivia.

Friel resides in Frisco with her husband.

Mark Murdock

Diving Coach

Second Year > Wyoming '12

Mark Murdock recently completed his first season at North Texas after spending the previous three seasons as the diving coach at Northern Colorado. He helped the Mean Green to a fourth-place finish at the Conference USA Championships, the best team finish since joining the league for the 2013-14 season.

The league championships capped one of the most successful seasons in school history, as they finished with the second-most dual-meet wins (7-4) and second-best winning percentage (.636) in school history.

In his first season, senior Jasmine Abercrombie placed fifth overall and set the school record with a score of 207.65 in the platform competition at the Conference USA Championships, while junior Samantha Scheck advanced to the "A" final in all three diving competitions. Both Abercrombie and Scheck also earned Conference USA Diver of the Week earlier in the season.

In his three seasons at Northern Colorado, he coached three NCAA Zone Diving Qualifiers and most recently was named the Western Athletic Conference diving coach of the year and coached the conference diver of the year in Savanna Meadows.

In his three seasons as an assistant, Kelsey Smith and Sara Moldenhauer, as well as Meadows, all earned WAC Diver of the Week honors and all three divers also qualified for the NCAA Zone Meet. He also helped guide Northern Colorado to a program-best third-place finish at the Western Athletic Conference Championships this past spring.

This past season, under Murdock's tutelage, the Bears placed three divers on WAC all-conference teams, including Meadows, who won the one-meter and platform league titles to earn first team honors. Meadows set program records in both the 3 meter (327.25) and platform (222.80). She also finished in the top 25 in all three diving events at the NCAA zone meet, including a program-best 22nd-place finish on the three-meter board.

Prior to his time at Northern Colorado, Murdock dove at Wyoming, where he received his bachelor's degree in social science in May, 2012, and spent his final year with the Cowboys as the volunteer assistant coach.

In addition to being an honorable mention All-American and a two-time Mountain West Conference champion, Murdock also holds the Wyoming platform and three-meter records and the UW pool records on both the one-meter and threemeter boards.

Competing on the national and international level, Murdock and his diving partner Dashiell Enos finished fifth in the synchronized men's platform at the U.S. Olympic Trials in June, 2012, while he represented the United States at the Canada Cup for Synchronized Platform Diving in April, 2011.

Mark Murdock is a native of nearby Flower Mound.
