

Student Alumni Ambassadors

Student Ambassador Application – 2018

The Student Alumni Ambassadors (SAA) are the official student group responsible for representing the UNT Alumni Association. Responsibilities of SAA include serving as ambassadors at Alumni Association events, engaging prospective and former students, and educating the UNT community about the Alumni Associations impact. We are seeking passionate students to grow our program.

Student Ambassador Eligibility/Qualifications

- Must be currently enrolled at UNT (Fall 2018). Term will be from September 2018 through May 2019. Membership in the ambassador program will be renewed each semester by discretion of the student director
- Must be in good academic and disciplinary standing at UNT
- Must currently have and maintain a 2.75 cumulative UNT GPA or higher
- Must be able to meet with advisor and board monthly during fall/spring semesters
- Demonstrate strong written and verbal communication skills
- Demonstrate strong networking and customer service skills

Student Ambassador Responsibilities:

- Serve at UNT Alumni Association and Advancement events
- Accurately represent the organization's mission and effectively market to prospective members
- Engage with alumni and graduating seniors to promote joining the Alumni Association
- Attend monthly meetings with the director and advisor to schedule events
- Promote and collaborate to improve Ring Ceremony each semester
- Join the Alumni Association at the student member rate

Student Ambassador Benefits:

- Free branded professional apparel including cardigan, jacket, and polo
- Networking with UNT Alumni at several events such as game day tailgates, regional alumni events, and our distinguished alumni awards ceremony
- Development of communication, public speaking, and networking skills through expert training
- Leadership and professional development while leading a team of peers
- Opportunities for Alumni Mentorship
- Provide selfless service to the University of North Texas
- Represent the UNT Alumni Association at campus event planning meetings
