

06.800 Use of English Language

06.801 English Language Program. Each General Academic Institution shall establish a program or a short course, the purpose of which is to assist faculty members whose primary language is not English to become proficient in the use of English and to ensure that courses offered for credit are taught in the English language in accordance with Texas Education Code § 51.917.

Adopted: February 7, 2008
Effective: February 7, 2008
Revised: