SUMMER ORIENTATION

Summer Orientation sessions are full-day orientations with the exception of the Summer Express Orientation. Our full-day sessions are have a focus on academic advising, registration, campus resources, and peer interaction. The benefit to attending a full-day orientation is that you will have the opportunity to participate in college success sessions and learn how to get involved on campus once the semester begins.

The Summer Express Orientation is a half-day orientation focused on academic advising. We realize that many transfer students work full-time or have other obligations during the day. Summer Express is designed to accommodate students who can't dedicate a full day on-campus for orientation.

For a schedule at a glance and additional information about orientation at UNT, visit orientation.unt.edu and click "Summer Orientation" in the right menu bar.

Summer Orientation 1:	Friday, May 3, 2019
Summer Express Orientation:	Friday, May 17, 2019
Summer Orientation 2:	Friday, May 31, 2019
Summer Orientation 3:	Friday, June 28, 2019

It is beneficial to attend the earliest orientation session possible for optimum course availability.

Note: The length of your orientation will vary. Please make arrangements to attend the full day of orientation.

All College of Engineering and College of Information majors will be advised at Discovery Park, UNT's comprehensive research park. Because this is where you will take the majority of your classes, it is important for you to also become oriented with this campus. Orientation Leaders will guide you to Discovery Park by bus following the Orientation Welcome.

TESTING

// Music

Auditioned and accepted music majors with transfer college music theory classes will be placed into appropriate music theory and aural skills classes with the consultation of their advisor.

// Math

The Department of Mathematics will not place students into courses at or above the level of Calculus I (Math 1710) without prerequisite credit. Some examples of prerequisite credit include: scores of 3 or better on the Calculus AB or BC Advanced Placement Exam, a score of 5 or better on the higher-level IB mathematics exam, and credit in mathematics courses with Texas Common Course Numbers: Math 2312 or 2412. If you would like to take Calculus I as your initial course and do not have prior prerequisite credit, you will be required to take the placement assessment. If your major requires Calculus I, then you are strongly encouraged to take the placement assessment.

1. You are expected to take the online Pearson MyMathTest (MMT) prior to coming to your orientation session. Doing this is important for students majoring in Math, Engineering, Science, Economics (BS) and who need to start with Calculus I (Math 1710) or a Business major who needs Business Calculus (Math 1190).
2. You will find how to access the test and other important information about the placement assessment on the Math Department's website. Go to: www.math.unt.edu, under 'Courses and Schedules' select 'Math Placement'.

// Foreign Language

Students taking the Foreign Language Placement Exam may earn up to 12 hours of foreign language credit. The exam may be taken only once per language. Many degrees at UNT require some level of proficiency in a foreign language. Review your degree requirements at catalog.unt.edu to see if a foreign language is required. The placement test is free to take, but if you would like the credits earned from the test applied to your transcript there is a $53 fee that will be applied to your student account. Exams for placement and/or credit are offered in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Russian, and Spanish. The foreign language placement/credit exam will be available each orientation session. In addition, the Department of World Languages, Literatures, & Cultures offers proficiency exams for languages not offered at UNT. For more information, contact the Department of World Languages, Literatures, & Cultures or the Department of Spanish at 940.565.2404.
