

TEXAS ETHICS COMMISSION
2007 FILING SCHEDULE FOR
GENERAL-PURPOSE POLITICAL COMMITTEES (GPAC),
INCLUDING COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES (CEC), AND SPECIFIC-PURPOSE POLITICAL COMMITTEES (SPAC)

This is a filing schedule for general-purpose political committees, including county executive committees, that have elected to file campaign finance reports under the regular filing schedule (referred to in this schedule as GPACs) and specific-purpose political committees (referred to in this schedule as SPACs). NOTE: A general-purpose political committee that has elected to file reports under the monthly filing schedule should use the 2007 FILING SCHEDULE FOR GENERAL-PURPOSE POLITICAL COMMITTEES FILING MONTHLY (MPAC).

NOTE: A political committee must file pre-election reports if the committee accepts contributions or makes expenditures in connection with the election. The campaign treasurer of a political committee may be required to file 30-day and 8-day pre-election reports in connection with elections not listed on this schedule.

EXPLANATION OF THE FILING SCHEDULE CHART

COLUMN I: REPORT DUE DATE - This is the date by which the report must be filed. The deadline for filing a report is 5:00 p.m. on the due date. If the due date for a report falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the report is due on the next regular business day. This schedule shows the extended deadline where applicable.

A report transmitted by modem or Internet is considered timely filed if it is transmitted by the filing deadline. A report on paper or on disk is considered timely filed if it is deposited with the U.S. Post Office or a common or contract carrier properly addressed with postage and handling charges prepaid, or hand-delivered to 201 E. 14th St., Sam Houston Building, 10th Floor, Austin, Texas, 78701, by the filing deadline.

COLUMN II: TYPE OF REPORT (WHO FILES) - This column gives the report type and explains which reporting form to use and which filers are required to file the report.

COLUMN III: BEGINNING DATE OF PERIOD COVERED - This column sets out the beginning date of the time period covered by the report. Use the latest one of the applicable dates. The "date of campaign treasurer appointment" is the beginning date only for the first report filed after a political committee files a campaign treasurer appointment. (NOTE: If you are ever confused about the beginning date for a required report, remember this rule: There should never be gaps between reporting periods and, generally, there should not be overlaps.)

COLUMN IV: ENDING DATE OF PERIOD COVERED - This column sets out the ending date of the time period covered by the report. The report must include reportable activity occurring on the ending date.

Please consult the CAMPAIGN FINANCE GUIDE FOR POLITICAL COMMITTEES for further information.

Moratorium on Contributions

December 9, 2006 – Last day to accept contributions before the 2007 Regular Legislative Session.

June 18, 2007 – First day to accept contributions after the 2007 Regular Legislative Session.

Please note that December 9, 2006, is the last day on which legislators, certain statewide officers, and certain political committees may accept contributions. The moratorium against accepting contributions begins December 10, 2006, and continues through June 17, 2007.

The following are subject to the moratorium:

- Statewide officeholders, including officeholders-elect;
- Members of the legislature, including members-elect;
- Specific-purpose committees that support, oppose, or assist statewide officeholders or members of the legislature; and
- Legislative caucuses.

Judicial offices are not covered by this moratorium. Judicial offices are subject to other laws that provide specific judicial fundraising periods.

A statewide officeholder or member of the legislature who was defeated at the November 7, 2006, general election is not subject to the moratorium, nor is a specific-purpose political committee that supports or assists only such an officeholder or member.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR SPECIFIC-PURPOSE COMMITTEES THAT SUPPORT OR OPPOSE JUDICIAL CANDIDATES AND OFFICEHOLDERS

Filing Authorities. A specific-purpose political committee supporting or opposing a single-county district judge or a candidate for single-county district judge must file a campaign treasurer appointment with the Texas Ethics Commission. The committee's campaign treasurer must file campaign finance reports with both the Texas Ethics Commission and the local filing authority. The local filing authority is generally the county clerk or the county elections administrator, or in some cases, the county tax assessor-collector.

Judicial Declaration of Intent Required. In addition to a candidate campaign treasurer appointment, a candidate subject to the Judicial Campaign Fairness Act must file a judicial declaration of intent regarding expenditure limits with the proper filing authority before he or she may accept a campaign contribution or make or authorize a campaign expenditure. NOTE: The Judicial Campaign Fairness Act applies to political contributions and expenditures in connection with the office of chief justice or justice, supreme court; presiding judge or judge, court of criminal appeals; chief justice or justice, court of appeals; district judge; judge, statutory county court; or judge, statutory probate court.

Limited Time Period for Accepting Contributions. A specific-purpose committee that supports or opposes a candidate subject to the Judicial Campaign Fairness Act may accept political contributions only during a limited time period.

Beginning Date. A specific-purpose committee that supports or opposes a candidate seeking an office that will be filled at the November 4, 2008, general election may accept political contributions during a time period that begins on June 6, 2007. (A specific-purpose committee that supports or opposes a write-in candidate may begin accepting contributions only after the candidate has filed a declaration of write-in candidacy with the secretary of state or county judge, as applicable.)

Ending Date. The time period ends on one of the following dates, as applicable:

July 2, 2008, for specific-purpose committees that support or oppose candidates who are not involved in a primary runoff election and who are unopposed in the general election, or for candidates who lost in the primary election.

August 6, 2008, for specific-purpose committees that support or oppose candidates who are involved in a primary runoff election and who are unopposed in the general election, or for candidates who lost in the primary runoff election.

March 4, 2009, for specific-purpose committees that support or oppose candidates opposed in the general election.

Other Restrictions. Specific-purpose committees that support or oppose a judicial candidate or officeholder subject to the Judicial Campaign Fairness Act are subject to various campaign finance restrictions that do not apply to nonjudicial political committees. For more information, see the Texas Ethics Commission's CAMPAIGN FINANCE GUIDE FOR JUDICIAL CANDIDATES AND OFFICEHOLDERS, which is available by mail from the Texas Ethics Commission or on the Ethics Commission's website at www.ethics.state.tx.us on the Internet.
