Inside Addison!

A U T U M N 2 0 0 7

Dear Friend of Addison:

You'll recall that for the past year a group of individuals have been exploring a number of areas to determine the next great ideas for the Town. The committees have completed their work and presented their recommendations to the Council. The committees' recommendations are available on the Town's website, www.addisontx.gov, and I would encourage you to review the reports. This has been an extremely interesting process and the committees are to be commended for all their time and hard work in addressing these very important issues.

It is an exciting time to be in Addison! The Town has just launched a new internet based program, Addison Perks. This new program provides special discounts and membership benefits for all the many things to eat, see and do in Addison! Each month the program will highlight one of the many restaurant categories. September is "Seafood Month" and many of the participating restaurants are providing special discounts. October is "Mexican Month". If you haven't signed up for Addison Perks, visit www.addisontx.net to do so.

Finally plans are underway for the Town's annual Oktoberfest celebration. This year marks the 20th anniversary of this popular event and a number of exciting activities are planned to commemorate this special anniversary. So make your plans to attend. Fall is a wonderful time in Addison and there is so much to do and see. For more information about the many offerings in Addison, visit www.addisontexas.net.

Sincerely,

Joe Chow – Mayor, Town of Addison

RECORD BREAKING REVELRY!

Addison Oktoberfest has always been legendary for fun and revelry. Now, we'll show the people at the Guinness Book of World Records just how much fun we can have in Addison. Join the Town of Addison as we try to SHATTER the World Record for the Largest Simultaneous Yodel – Friday, September 21.

TAP THE KEG TEXAS STYLE! Join Addison Mayor Joe Chow and other officials, as they celebrate the 20th Anniversary of Addison Oktoberfest. Mayor Chow will ceremonially tap the keg, officially kicking off Addison Oktoberfest – Friday, September 21.

RUN FOR FUN!

Join Wipe Out Kids Cancer at the Oktoberfest 5K and 1-Mile Fun Run for the Children. All participating runners get a special t-shirt and admission to Oktoberfest. And, new this year, all 5K runners who complete the course will get a 20th Anniversary Bier Stein – Saturday, September 22.

FROM MUNICH WITH LOVE!

As the most authentic Oktoberfest this side of the Atlantic, Addison Oktoberfest has always been the closest thing to celebrating in Munich. This year, guests can get even closer to the famed festival, as they enjoy live simulcasts from Munich – Saturday, September 22.

IT'S "DACH" SUNDAY! On Sunday, Wiener Dogs Rule! First, see the celebrated Bavarian hounds as they parade across the main stage. Then, dachshunds from all over the Metroplex will compete in dachshund races – Sunday, September 23.

HOIST SOME HILARITY! Join the fun at the Bowl Stage as guests hoist full bier steins to see who can hold them up the longest – and keep them full of their favorite beverage. Contests will feature men and women, all trying to keep the steins aloft – All weekend long. Sponsored by The Flying Saucer.

ROLL OUT THE BARREL! Watch as teams from around the area compete in a fun, bier barrel rolling relay. Winners will be announced Saturday, September 22. Sponsored by The Flying Saucer.

Get Well Soon

Wind down with a reflexology session, shop for essential oils or some unique jewelry, and top it off with a healthy treat at the Wellness Expo on October 20-21, from 11 a.m. – 6 p.m. at the Addison Conference Centre. One of the Metroplex's best sources of alternative health information, the Expo will feature 100 exhibits and 20 lectures, shopping and plenty of good food. Admission is $5 for ages 12-65; children under 12 and adults over 65 are free.

For more information, call 972-387-3770 or visit www.HolisticNetworker.com/expo.

What's Done is Done in Addison

Macbeth – Directed by Marco E. Salinas

October 17–21, Addison Circle Park

Enjoy a 21st century style performance of Shakespeare under the stars! Shakespeare Dallas brings this supernatural tragedy to Addison Circle for a spine-chilling engagement under the harvest sky. Performances begin at 8:15 p.m. at the Bowl at Addison Circle Park.

For more information, visit www.shakespearedallas.org.

Pickup After Your Pooch

Everyone knows that responsible pet owners pick up after their pets, but here in Addison, the Town will say an occasional “thank you” to those pet owners. Park and Public Works staff who observe pet owners doing the right thing will have a pleasant surprise for them – a $5 off coupon for pet supplies and services, redeemable at the Addison PetSmart store at 3800 Belt Line Road.

“Our animal control officer could, of course, issue a citation when she observes someone not cleaning up after their pet,” explained Assistant City Manager Chris Terry, “but we’d really rather reward citizens for doing the right thing rather than penalize them. We really appreciate PetSmart’s support of our efforts.”

More Than You Bargained

Find great bargains on household items, clothes, furniture and jewelry at Addison's semi-annual Community Garage Sale. Join us October 6, from 8 a.m. – 2 p.m. at the Sam's Club Parking Lot for this free event. For information, call 972-450-2884. Or, if you are an Addison resident and would like to participate, email Tim Hastings at thastings@addisontx.gov.

WaterTower Theatre Presents

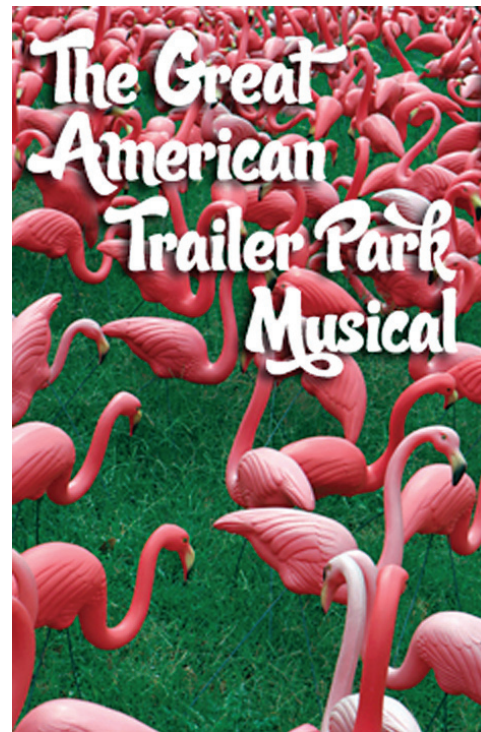

Book by Betsy Kelso

Music and Lyrics by David Nehls

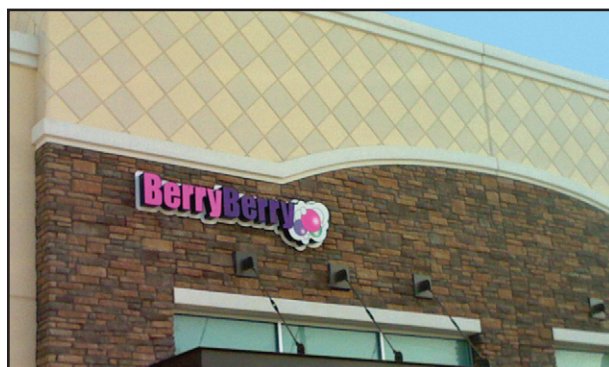

Sept. 27-Oct. 21

There's a new tenant in Armadillo Acres, and she's wreaking havoc all over Florida's most exclusive trailer park! The doublewide divas of this fine housing establishment have survived everything from kidnapping to no-good men to bad perms. But when Pippi, a "stripper on the run," comes between agoraphobic housewife Jeannie and her tollbooth-collector husband, a storm begins to brew that will shake these manufactured homes down to their mobile foundations.

Warning: This musical contains tacky outfits, bad wigs, crude language, adultery, roadkill, electrocution and spray cheese. So leave the little ones at home. A SOLD OUT hit at the 2007 Out of the Loop Festival!

Make Life More Fun with Addison Perks

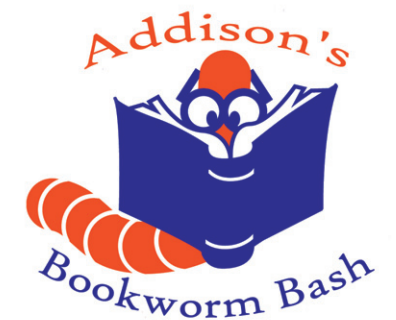

A collaborative effort with Addison restaurants, hotels and the Town, the Addison Perks Program is a free, internet-based membership program, which contacts members by email with special offers and updates about Town of Addison activities. Periodic promotions through the program will focus on specific themes or events happening in Addison. September is seafood month and the program is currently featuring a number of exclusive offers from some of Addison's finest seafood restaurants.

"With so many fantastic businesses and events in Addison, we wanted to create a distinctive program that would allow us to spotlight all the amazing things we have to offer in Addison," said Lea Dunn, Addison's Deputy City Manager. "We feel very positive about the Addison Perks program because it was created to benefit both the consumer AND the businesses."

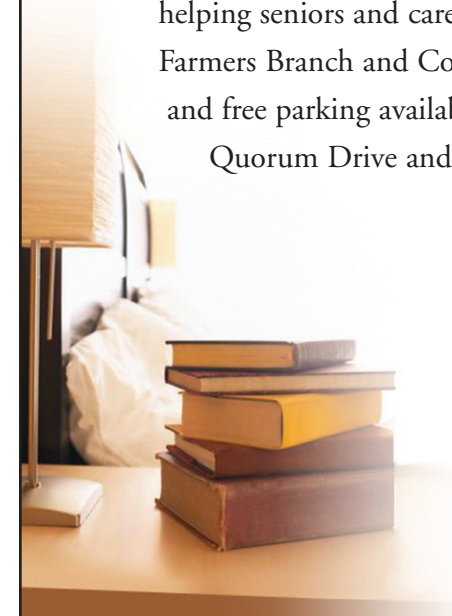

The program is also designed to promote tourism and to stimulate business and commercial activity within Addison. For more information about Addison Perks or to sign-up for membership, visit www.addisontexas.net.

A Novel Idea

Start your holiday shopping early at the Bookworm Bash on November 2-3, from 9 a.m. – 6 p.m. Find new and slightly used classics, paperbacks, coffee table books, cookbooks, periodicals and more. Proceeds from the event benefit Senior Adult Services, a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping seniors and caregivers in the Addison, Carrollton, Farmers Branch and Coppell communities. Free admission and free parking available on Addison Circle Drive, Quorum Drive and Festival Way.

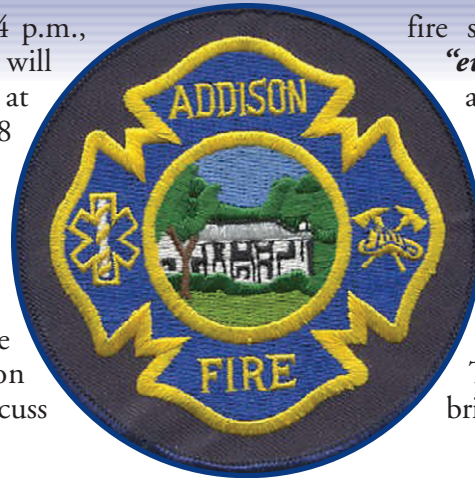

For information on Senior Adult Services, call 972-242-4464 or visit senioradultservices.org.

Sundae Afternoon with the Addison Fire Department

On Sunday, September 16, 1– 4 p.m., the Addison Fire Department will host an interactive open house at Fire Station 1 located at 4798 Airport Parkway for all residents. Everyone is invited to come visit with the firefighters, tour the fire station and view different displays of the latest tools and equipment. Members of the Fire Department's Fire Prevention Division will be on hand to discuss fire safety, home evacuation plans and "everything you wanted to know" about residential sprinkler systems.

Best of all, the members of the Addison Fire Department will also be serving ice cream sundaes for all those attending. So come out and meet your Addison Fire Department and join us for ice cream sundaes. There will be something for all ages, so bring the whole family!

Beep! Beep!

The Fire Department is now scheduling appointments for its annual Smoke Detector Replacement program. Representatives from the Addison Fire Department will visit your home and replace your old smoke detector batteries with new batteries during the month of October. In addition the firefighters will also conduct a Home Fire Safety Survey. These free services are a great way to make your home a safer place to live.

For more information or to schedule an appointment, call 972-450-7201 by September 21.
