

Getting Started in the Free World

Services for Incarcerated and Recently Released Persons with HIV Infection

Will you be ready for the Free World?

The move to life in the Free World isn't always easy, especially for people with HIV. Many HIV+ incarcerated and recently released people are not prepared for living a healthy, successful life in the Free World. We can help!

What services are available?

We are here to help you receive health care, medications, and social support. Our goal is to help HIV+ people stay healthy and increase their chances of success once they return to the Free World.

Who can receive services?

Services are available free of charge to HIV+ men and women. The agencies listed below provide access to medical and social support services in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. All services are provided with the utmost respect for privacy.

How do you start getting services?

You can contact the agencies below by phone or mail, or you can link to them through:

- ◆ medical or social services staff in your unit;
