The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission today instituted public administrative proceedings against six companies to determine whether the registration of each class of their securities should be revoked or suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months for failure to file required periodic reports (ticker symbols provided where available):

In the Matter of ABS Group, Inc., et al., Administrative Proceeding File No. 3-13037

- ABS Group, Inc.
- Accrue Software, Inc. (ACRUQ)
- iAsiaworks, Inc. (IAWK)
- Premier Laser Systems, Inc. (PLSIQ)
- Siskon Gold Corp. (SISK)
- Syquest Technology, Inc. (n/k/a SYQT, Inc.) (SYQTQ)

In the Order, the Division of Enforcement (Division) alleges that the issuers are delinquent in their required periodic filings with the Commission.

In this proceeding, instituted pursuant to Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) Section 12(j), a hearing will be scheduled before an Administrative Law Judge. At the hearing, the judge will hear evidence from the Division and the respondents to determine whether the allegations of the Division contained in the Order, which the Division alleges constitute a failure to comply with Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder, are true. The judge in the proceeding will then determine whether the registrations pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 of the securities of the respective respondents should be revoked or suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months. The Commission ordered that the Administrative Law Judge in the proceeding issue an initial decision not later than 120 days from the date of service of the order instituting proceedings.
