LEARN @ YOUR LIBRARY!

You already know you can learn a lot at the library, with books and computers and videos. But did you know that you can also learn new things in free programs?

Did you just finish second or third grade? This summer is a great time for you to learn chess! Mr. Avery, coach of the city champion Dennis Chavez Panthers, is offering beginners' classes on Thursdays in July, from 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM. Just sign up at the information desk, and you can get in on the game!

Wait—only for people finishing second or third grade? But what if you're older? Say, nine to fourteen years old? You're not left out! Learn cribbage with the Sandia Peggers Cribbage Club on Tuesdays and Thursdays in July, from 1-2:30 PM! Sign up at the information desk.

Chess and cribbage not your games? Why not check out the weekly Cherry Hills Pokémon club, every Tuesday at 1:00 PM? Just bring your cards and drop on by.

Maybe you don't want to commit to a whole class. Teens can also learn to make rockets with "Rockets Into Space," presented by the Atomic Museum on Tuesday, June 10 at 2:00 PM, or learn about comics in "The Art of Comics" on Tuesday, July 1 at 2:00 PM. Younger learners (6-12 years old) might like to learn how to make a bug-shaped wind chime on Tuesday June 18, at 2:00 PM, and children from six up are welcome to meet some "Creepy Critters" from the New Mexico Museum of Natural History and Science on Tuesday, July 8, at 11:30.

Whatever your interest, Cherry Hills is the place to learn about it this summer!

The name's Fleming...Ian Fleming

2008 marks the centenary of the birth of writer Ian Fleming, creator of James Bond, and the November release of the latest Bond movie, Quantum of Solace.

Put a hold on the new 007 book, Devil May Care by Sebastian Faulks. Faulks picks up where Fleming left off in 1966 with an excellent 007 adventure! Or try one of these Bond-related tomes:

The Science of James Bond by Lois H. Gresh (823.914 Gresh)

The Man who Saved Britain by Simon Winder (823.914 Winder)

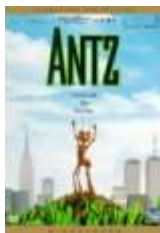

SilverFin by Charlie Higson (a YA prequel to 007's adult adventures)

Check this site for a brief biography of this author, bibliography, and details about centennial events:

Archeologist Dr. Indiana Jones is a respected college professor who wears a leather jacket and brown fedora and carries a whip, in his action-loaded, thrilling film set in 1936. Jones battles snakes, Nazis, and supernatural forces from Nepal to Cairo to rescue the Ark of the Covenant. (Rated PG. Runtime: 1 hour 55 minutes.) Bring a friend! Join the fun! We'll provide snacks!

New Books

Cindy Ella
By Robin Palmer
YA F Palmer

You know Cindy—everyone does. The hard-working girl with two spoiled stepsisters, all worked up about a dance. Of course, in the case of Cindy Ella Gold, she's worked up about the fact that everyone else is worked up... isn't there anything more important in the world? But when her letter to the editor of the school paper sends her to social Siberia, she finds out where her friends—and maybe her Prince Charming—really are.

New Books for Kids

The Puzzle of the Platypus and Other Explorations of Science in Action by Jack Myers

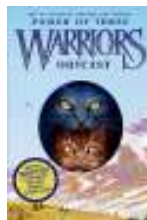

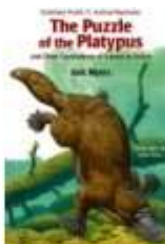

J 590 Myers

Why do some parrots eat dirt? How do you find a polar bear den? Can crows make tools to find treats? Jack Myers answers these and other interesting questions about animal behavior in eleven short, informative essays. John Rice's colorful illustrations add visual interest to the tales.

Outcast by Erin Hunter

J F Hunter

In Outcast, the third book of Warriors: The Power of Three, the mystery of Stormfur and Brook's exile from the Tribe of Rushing Water is solved. Cats of the Tribe come to the Clans for help when invading cats threaten to destroy their life in the mountains. Their old friends come to their aid, and Jaypaw, Hollypaw, Lionpaw, and the WindClan apprentice Breezepaw convince their elders to let them come along, despite the danger. Action, character development, and great questions raised about culture and identity.

Night at the Movies

Atonement

Monday, June 23 at 5 PM
For adults-age 17 and over only.

A mischievous girl accuses her older sister's lover of a crime he did not commit in a film based on the best-selling 2002 novel by author Ian McEwan. The year is 1935, and as the summer heat takes hold, 13-year-old fledgling writer Briony Tallis watches her older sister, Cecilia, go frolicking in the garden fountain on her family's country estate. The housekeeper's son, Robbie, a childhood friend, also witnesses the innocent act. Following this incident, the scheming Briony accuses Robbie of an unspeakable transgression for which the boy is wholly innocent, the repercussions of her unfounded claim threaten to affect all three for decades to come. (Runtime: 2 hours 10 minutes. Rated R for disturbing war images, language and some sexuality.)

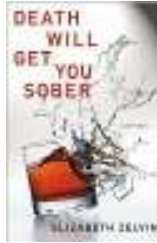

New Fiction

An Instinctive Solution: An Inspector Alvarez Mystery by Roderic Jeffries F Jeffries

In this 32nd Inspector Alvarez mystery, the Majorcan Inspector is called upon to investigate the death of a woman found shot dead in her own home, with all the evidence seeming to point to her husband's guilt. But Alvarez believes that Herod is not guilty, and the Inspector is forced to take a risk in the belief that justice should take precedence over the law . . .

Death Will Get You Sober by Elizabeth Zelvin F Zelvin

When homeless alcoholics start to die unexpectedly, Dr. Bruce Kohler, recovering alcoholic himself, wants to find out why. As Bruce grapples with staying sober, he finds that not drinking is only the beginning of coming back to life---a life he finds he wants to keep when it's threatened by a killer.

A Deadly Paradise: A Commissario Cenni Investigation by Grace Brophy F Brophy

In this sequel to The Last Enemy, Inspector Cenni finds himself investigating the murder of an elderly German woman, resident of the Umbrian village of Paradiso. Some of the dead woman's secrets may have been acquired long ago, during World War II. And the bucolic village is not that innocent: It was the site of a famous, scandalous murder fifty years earlier.
