

FCC HSPC Partnerships

The FCC Homeland Security Policy Council (HSPC) is working to bring together the communications community and representatives from federal, state, local, and tribal governments to help keep our nation safe. The FCC and HSPC are partnering with various agencies and organizations to prepare for natural disasters and terrorist attacks by securing our nation's communications infrastructure and enhancing emergency response through communications.

FCC's Homeland Security Policy Council Partnerships include, among others:

Executive Office of the President

- Homeland Security Council
- National Security Agency
- National Security Council
- National Security Telecommunications Advisory Council
- Office of Homeland Security
- Office of Science and Technology Policy

Federal Departments and Agencies

- Department of Commerce
- Department of Defense
- Department of Homeland Security
- Federal Bureau of Investigation

State, Tribal, and Local Governments and Associations

- Intergovernmental Advisory Committee (IAC)
- National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC)
- National Association of Telecommunications Officers and Advisors (NATOA)
- National Congress of American Indians (NCAI)
- National Tribal Telecommunications Association (NTTA)
- State Public Safety Departments

Federal Advisory Committees

- Media Security and Reliability Council (MSRC)
- Network Reliability and Interoperability Council (NRIC)

(over)

Industry and Trade Organizations

- Association for Local Telecommunications Services (ALTS)
- Association of Public-Safety Communications Officials (APCO)
- Cellular Telecommunications and Internet Association (CTIA)
- Competitive Telecommunications Association (CompTel)
- National Association of Broadcasters (NAB)
- National Association of Chiefs of Police (NACOP)
- National Association of State Nine - One - One Administrators (NASNA)
- National Cable and Telecommunications Association (NCTA)
- National Emergency Number Association (NENA)
- Personal Communications Industry Association (PCIA)
- Satellite Broadcast Communications Association (SBCA)
- Satellite Industry Association (SIA)
- United States Telecom Association (USTA)

International

- International Telecommunication Union (ITU)

This document is for consumer education purposes only and is not intended to affect any proceeding or cases involving this subject matter or related issues.

