

State of New York
DIVISION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE SERVICES
4 Tower Place
Albany, New York 12203-3764

TO: New York State Law Enforcement Executives

FROM: Gerard Miller, Office of Public Safety

DATE: January 4, 2008

SUBJECT: Illegal Gun Training

The Division periodically delivers training to police officers and others in designated IMPACT counties and surrounding areas to achieve and sustain long term crime reduction. The Office of Public Safety will present a series of one-day courses on Illegal Guns.

This training is intended to increase law enforcement officers awareness of local, state and federal resources, gun laws, and gun crime reduction initiatives to help interdict the trafficking of illegal guns and to remove illegal guns from the street. This training effort is co-sponsored by and includes presentations from; US DOJ Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives; U.S. Attorney's Office; District Attorney's Office; and the NY State Intelligence Center. Instructional topics are specific to the host IMPACT County or region and will include:

- Federal, State, and local resources supporting interdiction of illegal guns
- Overviews of firearm laws, sentencing, bail, detention, and gun reduction initiatives
- Case preparation tips, best practices and local policies
- The NYS Criminal Gun Clearinghouse

The course is open to law enforcement officers statewide. Although we have planned for large enrollment, seats are limited. Therefore, you must receive confirmation on attendance. Please fax back the application enclosed to the Office of Public Safety (518-457-0145) no later than the date specified on the registration form.

If you have any questions about the training, please contact Senior Training Technician Frank Wade at the address in the letterhead, by email at francis.wade@dcjs.state.ny.us or by telephone at (518) 485-1415.
