Criminal Justice Commission Administration Rules (OAR 213-05-12)

Credit for sanction units shall only be granted for time actually served. Good time credits, work time credits, or early release shall not count towards satisfaction of sanction units.

The offender shall receive credit for having served those sanction units as follows:

JAIL: Each day of jail incarceration equals one (1) sanction unit.

RESIDENTIAL CUSTODIAL TREATMENT FACILITY: Each day of actual confinement in a 24-hour residential custodial treatment facility equals one (1) sanction unit when the program is satisfactorily completed including up to one year of any required aftercare. Aftercare may continue for more than one year, but custody unit credit shall be granted following satisfactory completion for one year. NOTE: OAR 213-05-012(5) states that when the sentencing judge finds that a custodial rehabilitation program addressing alcohol & drug or sexual behavior is essential in reducing an offender's risk of recidivism, the requirement that an offender enter and complete such a program shall not be limited by the sanction units.

RELEASE PROGRAMS: Each day of partial confinement in a release program, in which the offender is confined in a custodial facility when not on release, equals one (1) sanction unit for each day of partial incarceration.

HOUSE ARREST: Each day of satisfactory compliance with the requirements of house arrest equals one (1) sanction unit if the offender satisfactorily completes the house arrest.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Sixteen hours of community service under the direct supervision of a supervisor designated by the supervisory authority equals one (1) sanction unit.

The supervisory authority shall keep a record of all sanction units served by the offender during the course of the probation terms. When sanction units are served only upon the satisfactory completion of a custodial program, the supervisory authority, when appropriate, shall certify that the offender has satisfactorily completed a custodial program and the number of sanction units served by the offender as part of the program.
