SOUTH VALLEY HEALTH COMMONS GRAND OPENING

Bernalillo County Commissioner Teresa L. Cordova, PhD, and federal, state and local dignitaries will celebrate the grand opening of the Bernalillo County South Valley Health Commons facility this Saturday.

“This is a dream come true for residents of the South Valley ,” says Commissioner Cordova. “Bernalillo County facilitated the efforts and resources from federal, state and local agencies and members of the community, to reach this goal today and present this outstanding facility to the citizens of the South Valley.”

The South Valley Health Commons building will provide one-stop medical, mental, dental, WIC, behavioral and social services healthcare for South Valley residents. Several agencies including, First Choice Community Healthcare, UNM Family and Community Medicine, and the State of New Mexico Health Department will provide services at the new 41,000 square foot facility.
