ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

ORDER ENTERED AGAINST SAN MARINO SECURITIES

An Order has been entered Making Findings and Imposing Conditions Upon the Withdrawal From Registration as a Broker-Dealer with respect to the application of San Marino Securities Inc., a Salt Lake City broker-dealer, to withdraw from registration as a broker-dealer. The proceedings were instituted to determine whether the effectiveness of San Marino's application for withdrawal should be conditioned upon San Marino fully complying with an order issued by Judge David Sam of the U.S. District Court for the District of Utah of October 3, 1990, insofar as that Order requires San Marino to make an offer of rescission to any of its customers who were sold securities between January 1, 1990 and the date of the Court's Order in violation of Section 15(c) of the Exchange Act and Rule 15c2-6 promulgated thereunder. San Marino has not complied with the Court's order and the Commission has filed an action for civil contempt against San Marino and related individuals and entities based on San Marino's failure to comply with the Court's rescission order. The Order in this matter was entered by default as a result of San Marino's failure to answer the Order for Proceedings and the Division of Enforcement's Motion for Default. (Rel. 34-30364)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

EMERGENCY MOTIONS TO APPOINT A CHAPTER 11 TRUSTEE DENIED

On January 29, Judge John E. Ryan of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in the Central District of California declined to grant the Commission's motions for appointment of a Chapter 11 trustee in In re Metro Display Advertising, Inc., dba Bustop Shelters of California, No. SA 92-10744 JR, and In re Continental Shelters, Inc., No. SA 92-10745 JR. On January 28, in a related Commission action, a U.S. District Judge for the Central District of California, temporarily restrained and enjoined Metro Display Advertising Inc., and its principals, Jean Claude and Karen LeRoy (LeRoyers) from violating the securities registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. See, Litigation Release No. 13154.

The Commission alleged in its motions that the LeRoyers had engaged in a massive fraud involving a Ponzi scheme, misappropriated investor funds and grossly mismanaged the debtors, thus establishing "cause" to appoint a trustee. While the Judge declined to appoint an independent trustee, he approved the appointment of an independent third-party to act as manager of the debtors in lieu of the LeRoyers. [In re Metro Display Advertising, Inc., dba Bustop Shelters of California, No. SA 92-10744 JR, and In re Continental Shelters, Inc., No. SA 92-10745 JR, Bankr., C.D. Cal.] (LR-13162)

EMA PRINCIPALS ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on January 22 Judge Donald J. Lee of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania entered Final Judgments and Orders permanently enjoining Joseph E. Rusnock, Gregory G. Maxcy, Henry L. Chiesa (Chiesa), Glenn A. Main and William J. Burk from future violations of the antifraud and registration provisions of the federal securities laws. Chiesa and Managed Advisory Services, Inc. (MASI) were also enjoined from violating Sections 206(1) and (2) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. All six defendants consented to the entry of the Order without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint. The defendants are former principals of Equity Management Associates (EMA), a Pittsburgh-based real estate syndication company now in bankruptcy.

The Commission's complaint, filed on September 30, 1991, alleged that between April 1985 and March 1986 the defendants offered and sold $6.2 million worth of unregistered EMA preferred stock to 110 investors by misrepresenting or omitting material facts. These material facts include EMA's involvement in related party transactions, Burk's active role in EMA's operations, EMA's payment of non-refundable deposits to acquire property and the issuance of preferred stock as consideration for real estate.

The complaint further alleged that Chiesa caused MASI, a investment adviser he controls, to misappropriate $83,000 from a client. The Commission's action is continuing against two other defendants. [SEC v. Joseph Rusnock, et al., USDC, WD PA, Civil Action No. 91-1666] (LR-13165)
