The General Counsel sent a letter to Bonnie J. Paisley affirming the Freedom of Information Act Officer's determination to withhold information concerning Summa Medical Corporation. CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

LARRY GROOVER CONVICTED

The U.S. Attorney for the District of Utah and the SEC announced the conviction of Larry B. Groover, formerly of Salt Lake City, Utah and more recently of Dallas, Texas. Groover, an attorney, was convicted of conspiracy, securities fraud, false statement and mail fraud. Among other things, Groover was convicted of using sham transactions and nominee directors, officers, and shareholders to create a misleading financial picture for G.C. Technologies, Inc., a company listed in the "pink sheets." False financial information and other false documents were used to project the image that G.C. Tech was a company with substantial assets.

Mining leases and oil well leases were obtained by Groover and sold at vastly inflated prices between and among Groover-controlled companies. Groover directed Marvin D. Haney, a certified public accountant, to prepare and audit financial statements for Golden City Exploration, a predecessor of G.C. Tech, for inclusion in the N.Q.B. Form 211 and the SEC Rule 15c2-11 package for G.C. Tech. Haney was not an independent C.P.A. and failed to disclose either that fact or the fact that the assets involved were conveyed to Golden City in related-party transactions. [U.S. v. Larry B. Groover, U.S. District Court for the District of Utah, Central Division, Criminal Action File No. 89-CR-0231S] (LR-12724)
