CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

COMPLAINT NAMES THOMAS F. QUINN, OTHERS

The New York Regional Office announced that on April 12 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York against Thomas F. Quinn, A. Frank Sidoti, Gary B. Wolff, all of New York, New York, Sundance Gold Mining and Exploration, Inc., Robert Redmer, both of Las Vegas, Nevada, Alan Scop of Brooklyn, New York, and Murry Rothfleisch of Hollywood, Florida, from violations of the registration provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 in the offering of Sundance's common stock pursuant to Regulation A, and the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. It is also alleged that Irving Orenstein of New York, NY and Joseph Garofalo violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act. Quinn has also been charged with violations of the registration and antifraud provisions in transactions in the securities of Aquarius Gold Exploration Co., Inc.

The complaint alleges that in the spring and summer of 1980 Quinn, a known securities violator who had been barred from association with any broker-dealer and barred from practice before the Commission, was an undisclosed promoter, control person, and underwriter for public offerings of securities by Sundance and Aquarius made in allegedly unlawful reliance on the Regulation A exemption from registration. The complaint alleges further that Quinn and certain of his co-defendants used false and misleading notifications and offering circulars for the Sundance and Aquarius offerings. The complaint also charges violations of the antifraud provisions in the aftermarket for Sundance securities. Among other things, Garofalo and Orenstein pegged the price of Sundance stock in the first trade opening the market while other defendants made misrepresentations and omitted to state certain material facts in various press releases and communications to shareholders concerning Sundance's interests in gold mining concessions in Suriname, South America. (SEC v. Thomas F. Quinn, et al., 83 Civil 2794, S.D.N.Y., TPG). (LR-9964)
