Commanding General, Marine Corps Recruiting Command

Major General (sel) Robert E. Milstead, Jr. Brigadier General Robert E. Milstead, Jr., was born at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, on 10 November 1951, the son of a career Air Force Officer. He graduated with a B.A. in English from the University of Houston in 1974 and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant through the Officer Candidate Course in March 1975. Upon graduation from the Basic School in October 1975, he reported to NAS Pensacola, Florida, for flight training and was designated a Naval Aviator in September 1976.

Assigned to Marine Aircraft Group 39 at Camp Pendleton, Second Lieutenant Milstead joined HMA-169 for duty flying the AH-1J and AH-1T Cobra helicopters. In July 1978, First Lieutenant Milstead was augmented into the Regular Marine Corps. In June 1981, Captain Milstead was transferred to Separate Brigade Platoon, 2nd ANGLICO at Camp Pendleton where he served two years as the S-3 Officer. While assigned to 2nd ANGLICO, he attended both the U.S. Army Pathfinder School and U.S. Army Airborne Course, where he graduated with the "Iron Mike" as the Officer Honor Graduate. In July 1983, Captain Milstead returned to MAG-39. During the next three years he served as the MAG-39 S-3A/WTI and as the Director of Safety and Standardization in HMT-303.

In July 1986, Major Milstead was transferred to Quantico, Virginia, to attend the Marine Corps Command and Staff College. Graduating with honors in 1987 as the recipient of the Beven G. Cass Award, he was reassigned to The Basic School. During the subsequent three years, he served as the Senior Instructor of the Command and Leadership Group, S-3A/Air Officer, and as Company Commander for two officer student companies. In September 1990, he reported to MAG-36 on Okinawa as the S-3A/Plans Officer. During this tour, he deployed to Turkey and Northern Iraq as the Executive Officer of III MEF CMAGTF 1-91 during Operation Provide Comfort.

Transferred to 3d MAW (FWD) at El Toro in June 1992, Lieutenant Colonel Milstead served as the Plans Officer and later as the 3d MAW Liaison Officer to MARFOR Somalia during Operation Restore Hope. Lieutenant Colonel Milstead once again returned to MAG-39 in May 1993 and was assigned to HMLA-169 as the Executive Officer. He became the Commanding Officer of the HMLA-169 Vipers on 22 November 1994.

Relinquishing command in June 1996, he was transferred to Washington, DC to attend the National War College. Graduating in June 1997 with a Master of Science in National Security Strategy, Colonel Milstead was assigned to Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps, as the Head of the Aviation Weapons Systems Requirements Branch (APW) in the Department of Aviation. In July 1999, Colonel Milstead was reassigned within the Pentagon for joint duty in the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics, Strategic and Tactical Systems, Land Warfare.

In May 2001, Colonel Milstead was transferred to the 2d Marine Aircraft Wing and assumed command of Marine Aircraft Group 29 at New River, North Carolina. During this command tour, the MAG-29 War Eagles deployed and participated in combat operations during Operation Iraqi Freedom. He relinquished command in August 2003, and was reassigned to Camp Lejeune as Chief of Staff, 4th Marine Expeditionary Brigade (Anti-Terrorism). In September, 2004 Colonel Milstead was reassigned to 2d Marine Aircraft Wing at Cherry Point as Commander, 2d MAW (Fwd) for deployment to Iraq. He was promoted to Brigadier General in Iraq on 17 February, 2005, and led 2d MAW (Fwd) in Iraq until they returned to Cherry Point in February 2006. From March until June 2006, he served as the Commanding General, 2d Marine Aircraft Wing, prior to transferring to Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps for assignment as the Director, Marine Corps Public Affairs. In May 2008, he was transferred to Quantico, Virginia as the Commanding General, Marine Corps Recruiting Command.

Brigadier General Milstead is a graduate of the U.S. Army Cobra TOW School, Marine Aviation Weapons and Tactics Instructor Course (WTI), and the Tactical Air Control Party Course.
