

Office of Mental Health and Addiction Services

Problem Gambling Resource Catalog

The following are books, videos, curricula and other materials on the subject of problem gambling prevention and treatment. These materials may be borrowed at no charge by Oregon residents by calling 1-800-822-6772.

A Day At A Time

Author: Gamblers Anonymous

Source: Los Angeles, CA: Gamblers Anonymous ISO

Year: 1994

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 995ADAY

Description: hardbound

Abstract: Gamblers Anonymous daily reflections and prayers.

Addiction Prevention and Treatment: Science and Self Care

Author: Northwest Regional Institute

Source: Portland, OR: Institute of Addiction Studies

Year: 1998

Type: Other

Call Number: 090ADDPR

Description: 322 pp.

Abstract: Materials on a wide range of prevention and treatment topics from the 1998 Northwest Regional Institute, sponsored by the Institute of Addiction Studies, Northwest Frontier Addiction Technology Transfer Center and Lewis and Clark College Center for Professional Development.

Addictive Disorders

Author: Fleming, M. & Barry, K.

Source: St. Louis, MO: Mosby-Year Book, Inc.

Year: 1992

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 510ADDDI

Description: 439 pp.

Abstract: A practical clinical guide on management of addictive disorders. Provides an overview of problematic alcohol and drug use, then discusses identification and treatment of primary alcohol and drug disorders and on the treatment of secondary medical problems. Clinical approaches to specific patient populations, such as adolescents, women, elderly, those with other mental health problems, etc. are

Alcohol and Violence: Partners in Crime

Author: Bottom Line, The

Source: Lansing, MI: Alcohol Research Information Service

Year: 1995, Fall

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 510ALCAN

Description: 93 pp.

Abstract: A series of articles on a variety of topics, including alcohol, violence, occupational use, older adults, tobacco, brain imaging, etc.

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Alcoholism and Pathological Gambling - Similarities and Differences

Author: Herscovitch, A.

Source: Holmes Beach, FL: Learning Publications, Inc.

Year: 1999

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980ALCAN

Description: 166 pp.

Abstract: Topics include historical perspective, why people gamble and consume alcohol, types of gamblers and drinkers, addiction, alcoholism, pathological gambling, probable causes, psychological factors, physical factors, progression, social signs, family effects, recovery, treatment and other drugs.

Behind the 8 Ball

Author: Berman, L. & Siegel, M.

Source: California Council on Problem Gambling

Year: 19xx

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980BEHTH

Abstract: Book written by social workers in New York to assist problem gamblers and their families.

Best Possible Odds - Contemporary Treatment Strategies for Gambling

Author: McCown, W. & Chamberlin, L.

Source: New York, NY: Wiley and Sons

Year: 2000

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 995BESPO

Description: 260 pp.

Abstract: Clinician's guide to the assessment and treatment of compulsive gamblers and their families. Topics include: paradigms of problem gambling behavior, phenomenology of gambling, etiologies and maintenance of gambling disorders, treatment methodologies and programs, assessment, nonlinear treatment methods, family systems therapy, considerations for future research.

Compulsion

Author: Moore, R.

Source: Illinois Council on Compulsive Gambling

Year: 19xx

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980COMPU

Abstract: Takes the reader into the emotional experience of being a compulsive gambler.

Compulsive Gamblers - Observations on Action and Abstinence

Author: Livingston, J.

Source: New York, NY: Harper and Row

Year: 1974

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980COMGA

Description: 161 pp.

Abstract: An early work identifying issues related to compulsive gambling. Topics include descriptions of the compulsive gambler, stages of a gambling "career", progression, abstinence.

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Compulsive Gambling - The Hidden Addiction

Author: California Council on Problem Gambling
Source: California Council on Problem Gambling
Year: 19xx
Description: 60 mins.
Audience: Adults
Type: Videos
Call Number: 980COMGA
Abstract: Depicts five personal stories (including three women) of gambling addiction and recovery. Several expert panels discuss gambling addiction and solutions.

Compulsive Gambling and Recovery

Author: Brubaker & Assoc.
Source: Ashland, OR: CNS Productions
Year: 1997
Description: 50 mins.
Audience: Adults
Type: Videos
Call Number: 980COMGA
Abstract: Video and instructor's guide whose purpose is to increase public and professional understanding of problem and compulsive gambling. Can be shown in its entirety, or stopped for discussions. Specific goals are to: educate the viewer about compulsive gambling, examine the financial/familial/social/legal/mental/physical/occupational/spiritual impact of gambling, present signs and symptoms, convey that it is a disease similar to other forms of addiction, convey that treatment works, give a sense of the complexity of the disease and treatment, help prevent people from becoming compulsive gamblers.

Convenience Gambling - Information on Economic and Social Effects in Selected Locations

Author: US GAO
Source: US Government General Accounting Office
Year: 2000, October
Description: 80 pp.
Type: Government Publications
Call Number: 980CONGA
Abstract: GAO report on the impact of gambling in the United States. Convenience gambling is defined as the placement of slot machines or video poker terminals in restaurants, bars, drug stores and other retail businesses. Report focusses on economic effects such as employment, tax revenues, community investment and bankruptcy and on social effects such as prevalence of pathological gambling. Studies were done in Charleston, South Carolina, Great Falls, Montana and Salem, Oregon.

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Crapped Out - How Gambling Ruins the Economy and Destroys Lives

Author: Vogel, J.

Source: Monroe, ME: Common Courage Press

Year: 1997

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980

Description: 233 pp.

Abstract: Chronicles the multi-billion dollar a year gambling industry's development and impact on society and individuals. Topics include: legitimization of gambling, state involvement, lottery issues, organized crime connections, advertising, disproportionate impact on minority and poor communities, societal and personal costs of compulsive gambling.

Deadly Odds - Recovery From Compulsive Gambling

Author: Estes, K & Brubaker, M.

Source: New York, NY: Parkside Publishing

Year: 1994

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980DEAOD

Description: 237 pp.

Abstract: An insider's view of the life and recovery of compulsive gamblers. Through case histories describes issues including: lotteries/casinos/bingo/sports betting, women and gambling, where to get help, recovery, gamblers anonymous.

Deal Me In Trigger Videos

Author: Minnesota Institute of Public Health

Source: Anoka, MN: Minnesota Institute of Public Health

Year: 1997

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980DEAME

Description: 4 videos of 2 mins or less each

Audience: Adults

Abstract: Four trigger videos of less than two minutes each. Designed to stimulate discussion about real life situations related to problem gambling. Includes facilitator's guides and worksheets. The Card Game features teenage boys playing cards and discussing casinos. The Disappointment features two girls whose plans are interrupted when one of them has to babysit while her mother gambles. The Hotline Call features a person making a call out of concern for two family members who have a long history of gambling. The Pawn Shop features a young man who pawns a diamond ring in order to fund a card

Diary of a Powerful Addiction

Author: King, A.

Source: Tyndall, Canada: Crown Publishing

Year: 1999

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980DIAOF

Description: 235 pp.

Abstract: A self-help memoir by a person addicted to video lottery. Diary chronicles the addiction that led to financial and emotional ruin and recovery.

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Diatribes and Group Notes

Author: Taber, J.

Source: Taber website

Year: 2000

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980DIATR

Description: binder

Abstract: "Diatribes" by Julian Taber include topics such as "Is Psychotherapy Necessary?", "Addictions in General", "Real Money and Gambling Money", "Gaming Regulation, Vulnerable Populations and Popular Stupid Ideas", "If I Had A Casino All My Very Own", "Religion and Selective Attention as Impediments to the Evolution of Addictions Anonymous". Group Notes topics include serenity, service and selfishness, sponsorship, anger, emotional pain, anticipation, relationships, control and living

Don't Leave It To Chance - A Guide for Families of Problem Gamblers

Author: Federman, E., et al.

Source: Oakland, CA: New Harbinger Publications

Year: 2000

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980DONLE

Description: 225 pp.

Abstract: Topics include: problem gambling myths and realities, recognizing problem gambling, who becomes a problem gambler, family issues, coping with emotional fallout, what you can and can't do to help, building a dialogue, repairing relations outside the immediate family, financial impact, treatment, maintaining safety for the gambler and the family, looking to the future, resources and a primer on probability. Reviewers thought the book appropriate and useful for clinicians and clients.

Double Down - Reflections on Gambling and Loss

Author: Barthelme, F.

Source: New York, NY: Houghton Mifflin

Year: 1999

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980DOUDO

Description: 198 pp.

Abstract: Story of two brothers and their several years' experience as they lost thousands of dollars gambling. Illuminates issues of compulsion and psychology of family in the context of their gambling experience.

Dream Chaser - Alberta Aboriginal Adult Gambling Prevalence Study

Author: Nechi Institute

Source: Nechi Institute

Year: 2000, Sept.

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980DRECH

Description: 64 pp.

Abstract: Canadian study on the prevalence of gambling among Native, or aboriginal, adults to determine the personal, cultural and social factors related to problem gambling in this population.

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Exploring the Gambling Experience - A Counselling Resource to Use With

Author: Alberta Alcohol and Drug Abuse Commission

Source: AADAC

Year: 1995

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980EXPTH

Description: 3 modules in one video each 22 mins or less

Audience: Adults

Abstract: Module one - 22 mins - assessing the impact; module two - 17 mins - looking ahead; module three - 15 mins - exploring related issues. Designed to augment the counselling process by stimulating client's exploration of his/her own issues. Can be used with individuals or in group setting. Modules are sequential but can be spread over more than 3 sessions. Intended for use by trained counselors for clients who have been assessed and appear to have a gambling problem.

Firewatch - Aboriginal Adolescent Gambling

Author: Nechi Institute

Source: Nechi Institute

Year: 1995, Nov.

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980FIREW

Description: 35 pp.

Abstract: Canadian study estimating the prevalence of gambling and problem gambling among Native, or aboriginal, youth and to determine the personal, cultural and social factors related to problem gambling within this population.

Gambler

Author: Stern, J.

Source: Evanston, IL: The Altshul Group

Year: 19xx

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980GAMBL

Description: 45min.

Audience: 7 - 12

Abstract: Chronicles the story of a star high school quarterback who has it all, including an addiction to gambling. What starts off as a lark turns into disaster as he refuses to admit he has a problem, even when his addiction grows uncontrollable and he borrows money from everyone around him. Ultimately his grades fall, friendships end and he loses a scholarship. Finally facing his problem, he admits his addiction and begins the process of rebuilding, clear that temptation and failure are always close at hand. Includes discussion questions inside the case.

Gambling

Author: Massachusetts School of Law Educational Forum

Source: Massachusetts School of Law Educational Forum

Year: 19xx

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980GAMBL

Audience: Adults

Abstract: TBA

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Gambling and Public Policy: International Perspectives

Author: Eadington, W & Cornelius, J.

Source: www.gamblersbook.com

Year: 1991

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980GAMAN

Description: 688 pp.

Abstract: Overview of how and what the public perceives of gambling, past, present, and future, via articles, papers, and essays written by numerous gaming and economic experts.

Gambling Away the Golden Years

Author: North American Training Institute

Source: North American Training Institute

Year: 19xx

Type: Curriculums

Call Number: 980GAMAW

Audience: Adults

Abstract: Curriculum for increasing awareness among seniors about the risks and signs of problem gambling, and what to do if they or someone they know has a problem.

Gambling Behavior and Problem Gambling

Author: Eadington, W. & Cornelius, J.

Source: Reno, NV: University of Reno, Nevada

Year: 1993

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980GAMBE

Description: 677 pp.

Abstract: Text provides an overview by various authors of issues related to problem and pathological gambling. Topics include: gambling behavior attributes and observations, studies in compulsive and pathological gambling behavior, theories on addiction, studies of prevalence, gambling and youth, gambling and crime, approaches to treatment.

Gambling Decisions

Author: Capital Health

Source: Capital Health

Year: 2001

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980GAMDE

Abstract: Client handbook and evaluation report on an early intervention program piloted in Canada.

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Gambling Decisions - A Self Help Guide to Help You Control Your Gambling

Author: Capital Health

Source: AADAC

Year: 1998

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 995GAMDE

Description: spiral bound

Abstract: A self-help book developed in Canada to assist gamblers to recognize gambling patterns, record their gambling behavior, pinpoint areas that may be cause for concern and develop moderate gambling habits. Includes self evaluation instruments and suggestions for how to understand and manage gambling. Intended for use after phone assessment with gambling counselor. Also includes a report of a one-year community trial on this early intervention program for problem gamblers.

Gambling It's Not About the Money

Author: Hazelden

Source: Center City, MN: Hazelden

Year: 2000

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980GAMIT

Description: 35 min

Audience: Adults

Abstract: Firsthand testimonials from a diverse group of recovering compulsive gamblers help viewers identify the symptoms of gambling addiction and offer hope for recovery.

Gambling Mania

Author: 20th Century

Source: A&E Television

Year: 1996

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980GAMMA

Description: 50 min.

Audience: Adults

Abstract: History Channel program on gambling--Americans wager more than $550 billion every year, and this program gives an inside view of this fast-growing phenomenon.

Gambling Treatment Programs Evaluation Update

Author: Moore, T.

Source: Salem, OR: Department of Human Services, Office of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Programs

Year: 2000, December

Type: Government
Publications

Call Number: 980GAMTR

Description: 56pp.

Abstract: Update of the evaluation efforts for the statewide gambling treatment programs in Oregon for fiscal years 1998-1999 and 1999-2000.

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Gambling With Your Life

Author: 48 Hours
Source: 48 Hours
Year: 1999, October
Audience: Adults
Abstract: Video from a 48 Hours broadcast with Dan Rather shown in October 1999.

Type: Videos
Call Number: 980GAMWI

Gambling With Your Life

Author: 48 Hours
Source: CBS News
Year: 2000
Description: 69 mins.
Audience: Adults
Abstract: Video from 48 Hours show on gambling. Four segments include: 1) coverage of a successful media journalist who lost her career, marriage and baby to gambling; depicts her story and long struggle to regain control; 2) a feature on day trading and how many critics say it is just another form of gambling; 3) the lure and impact of scratch off lottery tickets and how one person went more than $50,000 into debt with this form of gambling; and 4) the story of a New York cabbie who trades online from a laptop computer in his taxi.

Type: Videos
Call Number: 980GAMWI

Gambling, Game and Psyche

Author: Knapp, B.
Source: www.gamblersbook.com
Year: 2000
Description: 308 pp.
Abstract: The author probes the possible answers to the question of why and how, for thousands of years, have people of all classes, ages and professions been drawn to games and gambling? Is gambling "an exclusive thirst for material gain."? Or are other "abstract and speculative concepts" also involved? Author explores both the negative and positive factors involved in games of chance in nine chapters probing a different type of gambling in literary works of Western and Eastern tradition, utilizing the works of Pascal, Dostoevsky, Balzac, Poe, Sarao, Hesse, Kawabata, Aleichem and Xinxin, "all of whom have described amply the fate of the hero-gambler, to recognize the same vulnerabilities in ourselves."

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book
Call Number: 980GAMGA

Gambling, Game and Psyche

Author: Knapp, B.
Source: New York, NY: State University of New York
Year: 2000
Description: 308pp.
Abstract: Explores the psyches and cultures of the players of games of chance and skill. Each of nine chapters probes a different type of gambling in the literary works of western and eastern tradition in an attempt to understand the attraction, motivation and allure of such endeavors.

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book
Call Number: 980GAMGA

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Gambling: An Attempt at Integration

Author: Wildman, R.

Source: Alberta, Canada: Wynne Resources

Year: 1998

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980GAMAN

Description: 450 pp. Binder

Abstract: Overview of gambling including: definition and differentiations, history of gambling, parameters of general gambling, personal and individual factors, mental and physical status of gamblers, typologies, demographics, theories of motivation, mathematics of professional gambling, treatment methodologies and issues, societal implications, international perspective.

Gaming Industry Problem Gambling Customer Assistance Training

Author: Saskatchewan Health

Source: Saskatchewan, Canada: Saskatchewan Health

Year: 1996, July

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980GAMIN

Description: binder

Abstract: Training package designed to educate owners, managers, supervisors and staff of venues where gambling occurs about issues of problem and compulsive gambling. Modules cover: problem gambling awareness (history, types of gambling activities, why people gamble, impact on society/individuals/families, risks and signs of problem gambling); why concern about problem gambling is good business for gambling venues; and helping skills for the gaming industry. Includes overhead and

Handbook of Pathological Gambling, The Author: Galski, T & Nora, R.

Source: Springfield, IL: Charles C Thomas Publisher

Year: 1987

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980HANOF

Description: 211 pp.

Abstract: Early work provides an overview of diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation. Topics include: personality variables, diagnosis and scope, psychodynamics, family dynamics, crime, physiological determinants, psychological testing, treatment, general theory of addiction and application to pathological gamblers, forensic issues.

High Rollers - A History of Gambling

Author: History Channel

Source: History Channel

Year: 1999

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980HIGRO

Description: 100 mins.

Audience: Adults

Abstract: Video from a History Channel broadcast on the history of gambling in America from Mississippi riverboats to poker to powerball.

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Hooked on a Dream - America's Lotteries

Author: A&E Home Video
Source: A&E
Year: 1996
Description: 50 mins
Audience: Adults
Abstract: Video from an A&E Special, this program takes a close and critical look at the remarkable rise of state sponsored lotteries, which take more than $30 billion annually from the wallets of the American people.

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980HOOON

Improving Your Odds - A Curriculum About Winning, Losing and Staying Out of Trouble with Gambling

Author: Svendsen, R. & Griffin, T.
Source: Anoka, MI: Minnesota Institute of Public Health
Year: 1996
Description: binder
Audience: Adults
Abstract: Curriculum for classroom teachers and youth leaders to help them provide young people with the knowledge and skills they need to make choices about whether, when and how much to gamble. Includes activities, materials list, teacher background information, key vocabulary terms, action steps for the activity. Program can be completed in 4-10 hours.

Type: Curriculums

Call Number: 990IMPYO

In Search of Balance - A Problem Gambling Educational Kit Designed for

Author: North American Training Institute
Source: www.lazaruspublishing.com
Year: 1998
Description: video and workbook in a case
Audience: Adults
Abstract: Includes 23-minute video and 25-page workbook; video covers topics such as how the senior gambler feels, "soft signs" of a gambling problem, road to recovery. Workbook includes instructor information, exercises and resources.

Type: Curriculums

Call Number: 990INSEA

In the Shadow of Chance

Author: Taber, J.
Source: Taber website
Year: 2000
Description: binder
Abstract: Topics include an exploration of the gambler's delusion, recovery and redemption.

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980INTHE

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Intensive Treatment Program for Problem Gamblers

Author: AADAC

Source: AADAC

Year: 19xx

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980INTTR

Abstract: For addiction professionals who treat problem gamblers. Includes 16 modules that address topics such as gambling as a life style, debt mangement, leisure planning and more. Designed to be used individually or in sequence and suitable for residential or outpatient treatment. Each module includes background information, overheads and client activities. Developed in Canada.

Letting Go of Debt

Author: California Council on Problem Gambling

Source: California Council on Problem Gambling

Year: 19xx

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980LETGO

Abstract: Written by the former wife of a compulsive gambler, the meditations in this book hold a universal message of hope.

Losing Your Shirt - Recovery for Compulsive Gamblers and Their Families

Author: Heineman, M.

Source: Center City, MN: Hazelden

Year: 1994

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980LOSYO

Description: 191 pp.

Abstract: Covers issues relevant to gamblers and the family members affected by their actions. Topics include: marriage dynamics of gamblers, marriage dysfunction, ways to help family members, ways to help the gambler, stories of recovery.

National Drug Control Policy 1991

Author: Office of National Drug Control Policy

Source: Office of National Drug Control Policy

Year: 1991

Type: Government
Publications

Call Number: 880NATDR

Description: 179 pp.

Abstract: Report to Congress in 1991 on the ONDCP's control strategies, policies and recommendations.

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

North American Think Tank on Youth Gambling Issues: A Blueprint for Responsible Public Policy in the Management of Compulsive Gambling

Author: North American Think Tank on Youth Gambling Issues

Source: Boston, MA: Harvard Medical School

Year: 1995, April

Type: Monograph

Call Number: 980NORAM

Description: 25 pp.

Abstract: Summary recommendations from a meeting of the North American Think Tank to address issues associated with youth gambling. Recommendations included policy development, funding, law enforcement, research, treatment and training, education and public awareness/media

Pathological Gambling - A Critical Review

Author: National Research Council

Source: Washington, DC: National Academy Press

Year: 1999

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980PATGA

Description: 340 pp.

Abstract: Topics include gambling concepts and nomenclature, prevalence, research on origins of pathological and problem gambling, social and economic effects, treatment, organization and technology of

Pathological Gambling - The Making of a Medical Problem

Author: Castellani, B.

Source: Albany, NY: State University Press

Year: 2000

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980PATGA

Description: 222 pp.

Abstract: History and medicalization of pathological gambling. Stories of development of the gambling industry, treatment, government and research issues.

Pathological Gambling: Conceptual, Diagnostic and Treatment Issues

Author: McGurrin, M.

Source: Sarasota, FL: Professional Resources Press

Year: 1992

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 995PATGA

Description: 72 pp.

Abstract: Topics include epidemiology, historical overview, conceptualization of the disorder, case studies, diagnosis, treatment modalities, family issues and treatment, forensic issues, practical issues of

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Playing for Keeps - Adolescent Gambling High School Presentation Kit

Author: Alberta Alcohol and Drug Abuse Commission

Source: AADAC

Year: 1996

Type: Curriculums

Call Number: 990PLAFO

Description: binder with overheads

Audience: College/Young Adult

Abstract: Presentation kit for a 60 minute talk for high school kids (including recommended time with a recovering gambler as a guest speaker). Designed for use in schools or youth groups. Includes instructor notes, colored overheads, activities, quiz. Topics include definitions, signs of problem gambling, who is affected, personal experience, discussion/questions/evaluation.

Preparation for Licensure: A Texas PACT Resource Guide

Author: Scheel, K.

Source: Hazelden Southwest

Year: 1995

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 580PREFO

Description: 412 pp.

Abstract: The purpose of this manual is to help prepare counselors for licensure tests, specifically the process in Texas. The book provides an overview of: definitions, substances of abuse, biology of addiction, drugs by classification, psychological theories, basic counseling skills, screening, intake, orientation, assessment, treatment planning, case management, recordkeeping, education, referral, gambling, special populations, cultural issues, psychiatric disorders, ethics, family issues, and exam tips.

Problem Gambling - Chris

Author: Oregon Lottery

Source: Oregon Lottery

Year: 19xx

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980PROGA

Description: 7:47

Audience: Adults

Abstract: TBA

Problem Gambling Interviews

Author: Oregon Lottery

Source: Oregon Lottery

Year: 2000

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980PROGA

Description: 10:07 mins.

Audience: Adults

Abstract: TBA

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Problem Gambling: The Healing Circle

Author: Alberta Alcohol and Drug Abuse Commission

Source: AADAC

Year: 1995

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980HEACI

Description: 12 mins

Audience: Adults

Abstract: Addresses the importance of spirituality in recovering from gambling problems. Includes interviews with native tribal elders, staff and clients of a treatment program for natives in Canada.

Selling Hope

Author: Clotfleter, C. & Cook, P.

Source: Cambridge, MA: Harvard University Press

Year: 1991

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980SELHO

Description: 323 pp.

Abstract: Economic research and social policy view of lotteries as a source of state revenue. Illuminates the controversy over whether lotteries are appropriate business for state government and, if so, how that business should be conducted.

Sex, Drugs, Gambling and Chocolate: A Workbook for Overcoming Addictions

Author: Horvath, T & Hester, R.

Source: Impact Publishers Inc.

Year: 1998

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980SEXDR

Description: 240 pp.

Abstract: Workbook with practical suggestions for those trying to overcome an addiction. Step by step rethinking process designed to accomplish goals of overcoming a variety of addictions.

Sharing Recovery Through Gamblers Anonymous

Author: Gamblers Anonymous

Source: Los Angeles, CA: Gamblers Anonymous

Year: 1999

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 990SHARE

Description: 227 pp.

Abstract: Presents the principles and guidelines of GA.

Spirit of Bingoland - A Study of Problem Gambling Among Alberta Native

Author: Nechi Institute

Source: Nechi Institute

Year: 1994

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980SPIOF

Description: 35 pp.

Abstract: Canadian study on prevalence and characteristics of problem gambling among Native People of

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Spirit of Bingoland - A Study of Problem Gambling Among Ontario Native

Author: Nechi Institute

Source: Nechi Institute

Year: 1995, August

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980SPIOF

Description: 36 pp.

Abstract: Study of problem gambling prevalence among two Ontario First Nations Chippewa communities.

State Lotteries and Legalized Gambling

Author: Mc Gowan, R.

Source: Westport, CT: Quorum Books

Year: 1994

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980STALO

Description: 171 pp.

Abstract: Covers development and history of lotteries, strategic management of lotteries, and future of lotteries and legalized gambling.

Straight Talk About Teenage Gambling

Author: Saunders, C.

Source: Facts on File, Inc.

Year: 1999

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980STRTA

Description: 115 pp.

Abstract: Intersperses well organized and well researched facts about teen gambling with composite profiles of teens and how gambling affects their lives.

Stung

Author: Ross, G.

Source: Illinois Council on Compulsive Gambling

Year: 19xx

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980STUN

Abstract: Non-fiction "thriller" about how one man defrauded a bank to feed his gambling obsession.

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Table Talk - A Program for Families About Winning, Losing and Staying Out of Trouble With Gambling

Author: Svendsen, R. & Griffin, T.

Source: Anoka, MN: Minnesota Institute of Public Health

Year: 1997

Type: Curriculums

Call Number: 990TABTA

Description: binder

Audience: Adults

Abstract: A curriculum to help adults talk more specifically with young people about gambling. Goals of the program are to help participants understand the nature and prevalence of gambling among young people, risks associated with gambling among young people, help young people prepare for adult decisions about gambling, develop personal guidelines for deciding about where, when and how much to gamble, model appropriate gaming behavior for young people, initiate discussion with family members and friends, and talk with someone whose gambling concerns them. Facilitator materials include directions, notes, activities, worksheets, discussion guides.

Teen Gambling

Author: A&E Investigative Reports

Source: A&E Television Network

Year: 2000

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980TEEGA

Description: 50 min.

Audience: Adults

Abstract: Video from a broadcast on A&E about teen gambling--teens, parents, psychologists and teen gamblers shed light on this disturbing phenomenon.

To Gamble or Not To Gamble - An Inquiry Inot the Personal and Social Costs of Money Games

Author: Wagner, W.

Source: New York, NY: World Publishing

Year: 1972

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980TOGAM

Description: 370 pp.

Abstract: An early work that looks at the business of gambling, how it developed and how it has impacted society and problem gamblers. Discusses development of treatment and recovery groups such as gamblers

Treating Addictive Behaviors

Author: Diclemente, C., et al.

Source: New York, NY: Plenum Press

Year: 1998

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 530TREAD

Description: 357 pp.

Abstract: Transtheoretical model of change forms the basis for the articles in this book on addiction treatment. Discusses the model, five perspectives on understanding change, preparing for change, facilitating change and sustaining change, all in the context of treating addictive behaviors.

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

Treatment Tools - A Resource for Counsellors Treating Problem Gambling

Author: Alberta Alcohol and Drug Abuse Commission

Source: Alberta, Canada: AADAC

Year: 19xx

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 995TRET0

Description: spiral bound book

Abstract: Package developed by the Canadian government in Alberta for addictions counselors who need an additional resource to assist adult clients with gambling problems. Directed towards outpatient counseling, but could be useful in other settings. Sections include overview, gambling information, screening and assessment, treatment, financial information, relapse prevention, discharge planning and referral and further reading. Includes information for clinicians and masters of handouts and exercises

Twelve Step Guide for Compulsive Gamblers

Author: Serenity Support Services, Inc.

Source: Change Companies, The

Year: 1995

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980TWEST

Description: 51 pp.

Abstract: An interactive journaling workbook for recovery from compulsive gambling based on the twelve step

Wanna Bet - Preventing Adolescent Gambling: An Educator's Guide

Author: North American Training Institute

Source: North American Training Institute

Year: 1997

Type: Curriculums

Call Number: 990WANBE

Description: video, instructor guide, handouts in a case

Audience: 7 - 12

Abstract: Curriculum for students in grades 5-8 to help them develop the skills and knowledge base necessary to think critically about gambling. Kit includes 20-page facilitator's guide and curriculum, a 14-minute video, a cartoon-formatted booklet and overhead masters. Includes activities, discussion guides and tips. Discusses probability, addiction, influences on gambling behavior, signs of problem gambling, resistance and refusal skills.

What Should I Say? What Can I Do?

Author: Minnesota Institute of Public Health

Source: Minnesota Institute of Public Health

Year: 1999

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980WHACA

Description: 14:30 mins

Audience: 7 - 12

Abstract: Depicts real life situations involving gambling and shows effective and ineffective approaches to addressing a loved one whose gambling behavior is of concern. Three scenarios are depicted: a husband and wife, a mother and her adult son, and two sisters.

Oregon Prevention and Treatment Resource Clearinghouse

When It's No Longer A Game - Problem Gambling Community Presentation

Author: AADAC

Source: AADAC

Year: 19xx

Type: Curriculums

Call Number: 980WHEIT

Abstract: Kit provides basic information to raise awareness about problem gambling--intended for delivery by people who have some understanding of gambling and addictions. Workshop content is presented in point form and masters for overheads are included. Developed in Canada.

When Luck Runs Out

Author: Custer, R & Milt, H.

Source: Illinois Council on Compulsive Gambling

Year: 19xx

Type: Books/Article or
Chapter in a Book

Call Number: 980WHELU

Abstract: Comprehensive examination of the illness and its treatment; help for compulsive gamblers and their family members.

You Want to Bet?

Author: Biography

Source: A&E Television Biography

Year: 2000

Type: Videos

Call Number: 980YOUWA

Description: 50 mins

Audience: Adults

Abstract: Video from a show on "Biography" about gambling in which famous players, high rollers, ordinary Americans and anti-gambling activists speak out on the rise of trillion dollar casino industry.