

Want to share your expertise and life experiences?

Volunteer to help guide students in any of the LifeSmarts subject areas (two 1-hour sessions recommended for each subject area).

- Personal Finance
- Consumer Rights & Responsibilities
- Health & Safety
- Technology
- Environment

Sessions with students will be held between September 1 & November 30 (meeting times/dates are flexible).

LifeSmarts to provide:

- Orientation for volunteer mentors
- Teaching resources & curriculum

For more information on becoming a mentor, call the Department of Education Business-Education Partnerships Office, Judy Nagasako, 586-3687.

For more information on the LifeSmarts program, call the Hawaii LifeSmarts state coordinator, Jackie Choy, 586-2760.

LifeSmarts is brought to Hawaii by the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs in partnership with the Department of Education, Better Business Bureau Foundation, and Hawaii Credit Union League.

LifeSmarts Mentors

mentor n [L, fr. Gk. mentor] 1. a wise & trusted counselor 2. an influential senior sponsor/supporter.

