DEFINITION OF EXECUTIVE SESSION AND PUBLIC SESSION

Executive Session:

The Oregon Board of Psychologist Examiners meets in Executive Session for the purpose of considering records that are exempt by law from public disclosure, including investigatory information pertaining to licensees, information of a personal nature that the disclosure of would constitute an invasion of privacy, and records that are otherwise confidential under Oregon law. Executive Sessions are held in accordance with ORS 192.501(4), ORS 192.660(1)(a)(f)(h)(k), and ORS 676.175. The Board convenes in Public Session prior to taking any final action. Members of the news media may remain in the room during Executive Session, but are directed not to report on the specific information discussed.

Public Session:

The Public Meetings Law is a public attendance, not a public participation law; however public comment at Board meetings are scheduled periodically, for a specific amount of time, and indicated as an item on the meeting notice and/or public agenda. Public attendance is welcomed at any regularly scheduled meeting. Public comment is permitted only when designated as a planned agenda item. The Board Chair limits individual comments depending on the number of individuals who wish to speak, but totaling no more than 30 minutes of meeting business time. Attendees are instructed to limit their allotted to comments rather than questions directed to the Board.
