

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE FOR WORKERS

If you lose your job or your work hours are substantially reduced because your employer does not have enough work for you, file your claim for UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE BENEFITS by calling Hawaii Tele-Claim at 643-5555.

Call from anywhere in Hawaii, Sunday through Thursday, 6:30 am – 12 midnight; and Friday, 6:30 am – 4:30 pm Hawaii Standard Time (if Friday is a holiday, then Thursday's hours will be from 6:30 am – 4:30 pm). If you are hearing impaired, TDD relay service is available.

File your claim promptly. Your claim will begin only from the week that you file with the UI office.

Important

- ◆ When you call Hawaii Tele-Claim, you must provide your social security number.
- ◆ If you are not a U.S. citizen, you should have your alien registration number available.
- ◆ You will need to provide information for all of your employers in the past 18 months, such as the employer's name, address, zip code, phone number, date of employment, and reason for separation. Ex-military servicepersons should have their DD 214 (member 4) available. Former federal employees should have their Standard Form 8 available, or Standard Form 50, or pay stubs available.
