

Station Buffalo, New York

USLSS Station #5, Ninth District
Coast Guard Station #235

Location:	South side north entrance of Buffalo Harbor, 1/2 mile east of Buffalo Light
Date of Conveyance:	1875
Station Built:	1877
Fate:	Still in operation as Sector & Station Buffalo

Remarks:

Click here for a narrative of Winslow Griesser's Gold Lifesaving Medal rescue on 21 November 1900.

Keepers:

Thomas Williams was appointed keeper 27 March 1880 and resigned 24 March 1900.

Winslow Griesser \(G\) was appointed keeper on 16 April 1900 and transferred to Lorain LSS on 7 April 1911.

Hugh Harrity was appointed keeper on 5 April 1911 and was still serving in 1915.

Photography:

A photo of Station Buffalo in 2001

"SHORE
UNIT (FOR RELEASE)"

BUFFALO,
New York
(Sept. 10
[2001])--A
47-foot
motor life boat sits tied to the pier at Station
Buffalo,
New York."

Photo No.
100587

Photo by PA1 Harry Craft, III,
USCG

A photo of Station Buffalo in 2001

"SHORE
UNIT (FOR RELEASE)"

BUFFALO,
New York
(Sept. 10
[2001])--
The Coast Guard Station at Buffalo,
New York."

Photo No.
100593

Photo by PA1 Harry Craft, III,
USCG

A photo of Station Buffalo in 2001

"SHORE
UNIT (FOR RELEASE)

BUFFALO, NEW YORK
(Sept. 10
[2001])--
The Coast Guard
Marine
Safety
Office
located at Group
Buffalo,
New York."

Photo No.
100590

Photo by PA1 Harry Craft, III,
USCG

"SHORE
UNIT (FOR RELEASE)

BUFFALO,
NEW

A photo of Station Buffalo in 2001

YORK
(Sept. 10
[2001])--
The Aids
to Navigation Team at Coast
Guard
Group
Buffalo,
New York."

Photo No.
100599

Photo by PA1 Harry Craft, III,
USCG

[\[Historians' Office\]](#)

[\[USCG Home Page\]](#)

Added: January 2001