

Human Relations Commission

The Human Relations Commission advises the City Council and assists City departments in promoting mutual understanding and respect among the many groups of people who live, work and spend time in our community, on ways to eliminate prejudice and discrimination and on ways in which information on human relations topics can be disseminated, including conducting surveys and studies, convening forums, seminars and workshops, and sponsoring special event and award recognitions.

The Human Relations Commission has thirteen (13) members who are Tempe residents for terms of three years. The Commission usually meets the second Tuesday of each month in the Tempe City Hall third floor executive conference room, 31 E. Fifth Street, at 6 p.m.
