Facilitated Dialogue Program for Victims of Serious and Violent Crime (FDP)

Facilitated Dialogue is a victim-initiated process between a victim/survivor and the incarcerated DOC offender who committed the crime. FDP can provide the opportunity for victims/survivors to express their feelings directly to the offender. They are able to let the offender know how the crime has affected their lives, ask questions to which they have never been given answers, and experience the empowerment of holding the offender directly accountable for the harms caused. Victims/survivors must contact the Department of Corrections Victim Services Office to express interest in the program. All requests for dialogue are carefully assessed by ODOC Victim Services in collaboration with an Advisory Committee to determine if the case is appropriate to move forward. For more information, call 888-749-8080 or 541-881-4625.

Do not depend solely on the VINE service for your protection. If you feel that you may be at risk, take precautions as if the offender has already been released.

VINE® Facts:

- The offender will not know you are registered with VINE.
- If you are not home, VINE will leave a message on an answering machine. If there is no answer, VINE will continue to call for up to 48 hours or until you enter your PIN code.
- Since VINE calls automatically when an offender's custody status changes, you may get a call from VINE in the middle of the night.
- Do not leave a phone number with VINE that rings to a switchboard.
- The Oregon VINE service monitors offenders in the custody of the Oregon Department of Corrections, the Oregon Youth Authority and all county jails. The service also provides probation and parole information.
- Do not depend only on the VINE service or any other single program for your protection. Make VINE part of your safety plan.
- You can leave more than one phone number with VINE.

VINE:

Victim Information & Notification Everyday

What will VINE do for me?

VINE will tell you if an offender is in the custody of the Oregon Department of Corrections, Oregon Youth Authority, or a county jail and will give you other important custody and/or probation and parole information. VINE will also let you leave a phone number where you want to be called automatically when that offender is released, transferred, escapes, dies, or has a change in parole or probation status.

What do I need to do?

1. Call 1-877-OR-4-VINE from a touch-tone phone and follow the instructions. You can also obtain offender information and register for notification online at www.vinelink.com.
2. If the offender is in the custody of the agencies listed above, you can leave your phone number to be called when their custody or probation status changes. Enter the phone number where you want to be reached, including area code, followed by the pound (#) key.
3. When VINE asks, make up and enter a four-digit Personal Identification Number (PIN) code that will be easy for you to remember. Write it on the back of this brochure or in a safe place. VINE will ask for the PIN code when it calls you.
4. When VINE calls, listen to the message, then enter your PIN when asked. Entering the PIN lets VINE know that you got the call, and will stop the service from calling you again.
