STATE ID CARDS AT HALE OLA HO'OKAPOLEA

HONOLULU - Attorney General Mark Bennett announced today that, in an effort to provide more convenient service to the public, personnel of the State Identification Office will be at Hale Ola Ho'okapolea in Waianae on Saturday, March 19, 2005, from 8:00 a.m. to 2:30 pm, to process applications for State ID cards. The address is 89-137 Nanakuli Avenue.

Information on application requirements is available by calling (808) 587-3111 (recorded message) or via the State website at <http://www.hawaii.gov/hcjd>.

First priority will be given to individuals with completed applications and required certified documents. Applicants may obtain application forms on-site.

The fee is $10 for senior citizens 65 years and older, and $15 for all others, payable in cash only. State ID cards will be processed and mailed to applicants within five to ten working days. For more information about the State ID program, please call 587-3112.
