SMUGGLED POULTRY and OTHER AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS increase the risk of introducing serious agricultural pests and diseases like the most severe form of avian influenza, or “bird flu,” into the United States. The U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Smuggling Interdiction and Trade Compliance Program needs your help. Some poultry products are RESTRICTED and can enter the United States legally under certain conditions, while others are PROHIBITED because of the risk of introducing diseases.

Call USDA’s Anti-Smuggling Hotline at 1-800-877-3835 to

- find out which products are prohibited or restricted, or
