Labor Department and OMB to Launch GovBenefits Web Site

E-Government Initiative Will Increase Accessibility to Government Services and Streamline Administration.

WASHINGTON -- Deputy Secretary of Labor Cam Findlay, along with Office of Management and Budget Associate Director for Information Technology and E-Government Mark Forman and other federal government officials, will officially launch the GovBenefits Web site on Monday, April 29, at 10:00 a.m. at the Labor Department's Frances Perkins Building.

GovBenefits is the first part of the President's e-government initiative to be launched. The Web site brings together information on services and benefits from across the federal government and makes them more accessible and easier to understand. The site is easy to use and will get citizens to the information they need quickly and efficiently.
