- B. Web address for this report: <http://www.cpsc.gov/cpscpub/pubs/reports/foia01.pdf>
- C. A paper copy of the report is available from CPSC Office of the Secretary at the address above.

II. HOW TO MAKE A FOIA REQUEST

- A. All FOIA requests received by the CPSC are processed in headquarters. The address is: Freedom of Information Act Request, Office of the Secretary, U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, Washington, D.C. 20207, or for hand deliveries: 4340 East-West Highway, Suite 502, Bethesda, Maryland 20814. Telephone: 301-504-0800, Facsimile: 301-504-0127, Email: tstevenson@cpsc.gov
- B. Other Reference Information about the Agency: The CPSC's World Wide Web site, www.cpsc.gov, contains extensive information about the agency's activities, including agency meetings, product recalls and hazards, job vacancies, publications, a calendar of public meetings, other important activities and the Guide to Public Information. The site also includes an interactive feature that allows consumers to report unsafe products and related injuries electronically. CPSC also maintains an electronic mail address: Info@cpsc.gov. This can be used for inquiries about product recalls or to report potential product hazards. The CPSC's public reference reading room contains numerous agency records, including the materials the CPSC makes available for public inspection and copying pursuant to the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. §§ 552(a)(2) and (5). The reading room is in the Public Information Center in Suite 419 at the CPSC's headquarters at 4330 East-West Highway, Bethesda, Maryland 20814. Those reading room records are also available on the CPSC's electronic reading room on CPSC's World Wide Web site, www.cpsc.gov, in the FOIA portions of the "Library" section.

C. Response Time Ranges: The CPSC responds within 7 days to most of the FOIA requests that are received. These are simple requests for materials that are frequently requested or where we have anticipated the subject of the requests. More complex requests require additional preparation and processing time. The median time to complete the complex requests is 30 days. Complex requests involve one of the following: voluminous records or records which are not easily accessible and have to be collected from several Commission offices; proprietary data; privacy concerns; part of an investigatory file; or review required by section 6(b) of the Consumer Product Safety Act (CPSA), 15 U.S.C. § 2055(b).¹ The Commission reviews all agency records that are responsive to FOIA requests according to the requirements of section 6(b). These notifications and the extensive analyses they require are in addition to procedures routinely conducted pursuant to the FOIA. The process not only involves the staffs of the Offices of the Secretary and the General Counsel, but also frequently involves other technical staffs where their expertise is required for an understanding of the materials being processed. The time-consuming reviews and material preparations of FOIA requests involving section 6(b) cause delays in the processing of these requests.

D. The CPSC generally does not disclose to the public the following types of information:

1. Documents prohibited from disclosure by the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. §§ 2055(a) and (b), which prohibits the release of: trade secrets and confidential commercial or financial information; and information that identifies manufacturers of consumer products, unless the CPSC has taken reasonable steps to assure it is accurate, its release would be fair under the circumstances, and its release is reasonably related to effectuating the purposes of the acts the Commission administers.
2. Information that identifies injured persons and the persons who treated them, without their consent to disclosure.

¹ On June 9, 1980, the U. S. Supreme Court ruled that section 6(b) of the CPSA applies to FOIA requests, CPSC v. GTE Sylvania, 447 U.S. 102 (1980). Section 6(b) requires that, with certain exceptions, the Commission notify manufacturers or private labelers of consumer products before disclosing information from which their identities can be readily ascertained by the public. Section 6(b) prohibits the disclosure of information earlier than 30 days after notification to identified firms to allow the firms to make claims and comments. Firms must be given 10 days to file suit to block the disclosure if they claim that the information is confidential or inaccurate. Efforts to satisfy the statutory requirements in the CPSA necessarily delay many responses to FOIA requests.

3. Certain inter-agency and intra-agency memoranda containing opinions and recommendations prepared to assist in decision-making.
4. Personnel, medical and similar files, the disclosure of which would be a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
5. Investigatory records compiled for law enforcement purposes when disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement procedures, reveal identities of confidential information sources, or would disclose techniques, guidelines and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions.

III. DEFINITIONS OF TERMS AND ACRONYMS USED IN THE REPORT

- A. Agency-Specific Acronyms or Other Terms.
 1. CPSA • the Consumer Product Safety Act . 15 U.S.C. §§ 2051-2084.

- B. Basic Terms expressed in common terminology.
1. FOIA/Privacy Act Request • Freedom of Information Act request.
A FOIA request is a request for access to records concerning a third party, an organization, or a particular topic of interest. A Privacy Act request is a request for records concerning oneself; such requests are also treated as FOIA requests. All requests for access to records, regardless of which law is cited by a requester, are included in this report.
 2. Initial Request • a request to a federal agency for access to records under the Freedom of Information Act.
 3. Appeal • a request to a federal agency asking that it review at a higher administrative level an initial full denial or partial denial of access to records under the Freedom of Information Act, or any other FOIA determination, such as a matter pertaining to fees.
 4. Processed Request or Appeal • a request or appeal for which an agency has taken a final action on the request or the appeal.
 5. Multi-track Processing • a system in which simple requests requiring relatively minimal review are placed in one processing track and more voluminous and complex requests are placed in one or more other tracks. Requests in each track are processed on a first-in/first-out basis. A requester who has an urgent or compelling need for records may request expedited processing.
 6. Expedited Processing • an agency will process a FOIA request on an expedited basis when a requester has shown an exceptional need or urgency for the records which warrants prioritization of his or her request over other requests that were made earlier.
 7. Simple Request • a FOIA request that an agency using multi-track processing places in its fastest (non-expedited) track based on the volume or simplicity of records requested.
 8. Complex Request • a FOIA request that an agency using multi-track processing places in a slower track based on the volume, availability and complexity of records requested.
 9. Granted Request • an agency decision to disclose all records in full in response to a FOIA request.
 10. Partially Granted Request • an agency decision to disclose a record in part in response to a FOIA request, deleting information determined to be exempt under one or more of the FOIA's exemptions; or a decision to disclose some records in their entireties, but to withhold others in whole or in part.

11. Denial or Full Denial • an agency decision to not release any part of a record or records in response to a FOIA request, because all the information in the requested records is determined by the agency to be exempt under one or more of the FOIA’s exemptions, or for some procedural reason, such as because no record is located in response to a FOIA request.
12. Time Limits • the time period in the FOIA for an agency to respond to a FOIA request (ordinarily 20 working days from proper receipt of a “perfected” FOIA request).
13. Perfected Request • a FOIA request for records which adequately describes the records sought, which has been received by the FOIA office of the agency or agency component in possession of the records, and for which there is no remaining question about the payment of applicable fees.
14. Exemption 3 statute • a separate federal statute prohibiting the disclosure of a certain type of information and authorizing its withholding under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3).
15. Median Number • the middle, not the average number.
16. Average Number • the number obtained by dividing the sum of a group of numbers by the quantity of numbers in the group.

The denials involved requests for information pertaining to Commission inspections of firms, Commission files on possible product hazards under section 15 of the CPSA, and other Commission files containing submitted proprietary data. Deletions were made of information submitted by firms being investigated and determined to be proprietary or confidential, consisting of sales volumes or other financial totals, manufacturing processes, formulas, supplier and dealer identities, pricing and distribution information, testing conducted by firms, and technical and engineering specifications.

Such information included unconfirmed consumer complaints and reported incidents, and information provided by firms during negotiations for the settlement of compliance matters.
