

Appendix F. Profiles of Fatal Work Injuries and Hazards

This section presents profiles of fatal occupational injuries by specific groupings that have high numbers of fatalities or higher-than-average fatality rates, or are of general interest to the public-at-large. Included in this section are profiles of fatalities involving homicides, workers of Hispanic or Latino ethnicity, workers 55 years and older, workers in the private mining industry, and workers in the private construction sub-sectors.