

The incidence rate for injuries and illnesses was 4.8 in 2004. The rate in goods-producing industries was 6.5, and in service-providing industries it was 4.2.

Among goods-producing industries, rates ranged from 3.8 cases per 100 full-time workers in mining to 6.6 cases per 100 full-time workers in manufacturing.

In the service-providing industries, rates ranged from 1.6 cases per 100 full-time workers in financial activities to 7.3 cases per 100 full-time workers in transportation and warehousing.

Total recordable nonfatal occupational injury and illness incidence rates, by selected industry sector, 2004

Source: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor, November 2005