

the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. 2069, Respondent is subject to civil penalties.

Response of Rose Art

11. Rose Art denies the allegations of the staff that the Kits contain a defect which could create a substantial product hazard, or create an unreasonable risk of serious injury or death, and denies that it violated the reporting requirements of section 15(b) of the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. 2064(b). Respondent also denies that the products when maintained and used properly create a substantial product hazard or an unreasonable risk of serious injury or death under section 15(b) of the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. 2064(b). Respondent asserts that it did not "knowingly" violate any reporting requirements under the CPSA. Respondent further asserts that any injury associated with the use of its products was attributable to unreasonable consumer misuse of the products contrary to instructions and without adequate adult supervision.

12. Notwithstanding its denial that the Kits contain a defect which could create a substantial product hazard, or create an unreasonable risk of serious injury or death, Respondent nevertheless, cooperated with the staff in recalling the products.

Agreement of The Parties

13. The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter and over Rose Art Under the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. 2051–2084.

14. In settlement of the staff's allegations, Rose Art agrees to pay a civil penalty of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000.00) in two installments. The first installment of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000.00) shall be paid within twenty (20) calendar days of service of the Final Order of the Commission accepting this Settlement Agreement. The second installment of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000.00) shall be paid on or before January 31, 2006. These payments shall be made by check payable to the order of the United States Treasury.

15. The parties enter into this Settlement Agreement for settlement purposes only. The Settlement Agreement does not constitute an admission by Rose Art, or a determination by the Commission that Rose Art has violated the CPSA's reporting requirements.

16. Upon provisional acceptance of this Settlement Agreement and Order by the Commission, the Commission shall place this Agreement and Order on the public record and shall publish it in the Federal Register in accordance with he procedure set forth in 16 C.F.R. 1118.20(e). If the Commission does not receive any written request not to accept the Settlement Agreement and Order within 15 days, the Agreement and Order shall be deemed finally accepted on the 16th day after the date it is published in the Federal Register

17. Upon final acceptance of this Settlement Agreement by the Commission and issuance of the Final Order, Rose Art knowingly, voluntarily and completely waives any rights it may have in this matter to the following: (i) An administrative or judicial hearing; (ii) judicial review or other challenge or contest of the validity of the Commission's actions; (iii) a determination by the Commission as to whether Respondent failed to comply with the CPSA and its underlying regulations; (iv) a statement of findings of fact and conclusions of law; and (v) any claims under the Equal Access to Justice Act.

18. The Commission may publicize the terms of the Settlement Agreement and Order.

19. This Settlement Agreement and Order shall apply to, and be binding upon Respondent and each of its successors and assigns.

20. The Commission's Order in this matter is issued under the provisions of the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. 2051–2084, and a violation of the Order may subject Respondent to appropriate legal action.

21. This Settlement Agreement may be used in interpreting the Order. Agreements, understandings, representations, or interpretations made outside of this Settlement Agreement and Order may not be used to vary or to contradict its terms.

22. The Settlement Agreement and Order shall not be waived, changed, amended, modified, or otherwise altered, except in writing executed by the party against whom such amendment, modification, alteration, or waiver is sought to be enforced, and approved by the Commission.

23. If, after the effective date hereof, any provision of this Settlement Agreement and Order is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future laws effective during the terms of the Settlement Agreement and Order shall remain in full effect, unless the Commission and Respondent determine that severing the provision materially impacts the purpose of the Settlement Agreement and Order.

Order

Upon consideration of the Settlement Agreement entered into between Rose Art Industries, Inc. ("Rose Art") and the staff of the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (the "Commission"), and the Commission having jurisdiction over the subject matter and over Rose Art, and it appearing that the Settlement Agreement is in the public interest, it is Ordered, that the Settlement Agreement be, and hereby is, accepted; and it is Further Ordered, that Rose Art shall pay a civil penalty of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000.00) in two installments. The first installment of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000.00) shall be paid within twenty (20) calendar days of service of the Final Order of the Commission accepting the Settlement Agreement. The second installment of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000.00) shall be paid on or before January 31, 2006. These payments shall be made by check payable to the order of the United States Treasury. Upon the failure of Rose Art to make a payment or upon the making of a late payment, (i) the entire amount of the civil penalty shall become due and payable, and (ii) interest on the outstanding balance shall accrue and be paid at the federal legal rate of interest under the provisions of 28 U.S.C. 1961(a) and (b).

Provisionally accepted and Provisional Order issued on the 30th day of June, 2005.

By Order of the Commission,
Todd A. Stevenson,
Secretary, Consumer Product Safety Commission.
