Material Handling Safety at Surface Mines, Mills, and Plants (C/MNM)

MSHA-2006 (1CD)

This computer CD contains visuals and discussion on safety in manual and mechanical material handling and storage. Trainers, safety personnel, supervisors, or others can use the CD to conduct classes for mine workers. Anyone can also use it for self-study. The same information is available on MSHA's website (www.msha.gov); however, the CD includes additional formats for those who wish to do full-screen presentations with a computer projection system and/or wish to tailor the material to their operations. An internet connection is required for use of the linked information on the CD. The CD includes:

- Microsoft PowerPoint® Version – Contains 132 slides with speaker notes. (Works best with PowerPoint® 2002 or later.)
- Booklet/Script – A Microsoft Word® file for printing easy-to-read copies of the material for self-study, pre-class review of course material, in-class instructor use, course handouts, or reference. (Works best with Word® 2002 or later.)
- HTML Version – Interactive self-paced course as it appears on MSHA's website. (Requires browser software.)

To order, please complete the form below. You may do so "on-screen," print the form, then mail or fax it to us. Make certain to provide all the information requested in the form.
