

Ministry of Industry & Minerals-Industrial Services Sector Executive Summary

- Industries: Process, mechanical, electrical, and information technology research & development
- Factories: 5 facilities
- Total revenue: $17,500,000
- 2005 revenue: $67,500,000 (projected)

The Industrial Services Sector utilizes advanced technology to provide essential services to Iraqi industry. This sector is well developed and can easily provide needed services and resources to the industrial sector in Iraq and the region. Industrial Services provides consulting and technical services and can improve its revenues with reorganization, investment, and the introduction of new technologies. The sector consists of the following state owned enterprises:

- State Industrial Design & Consultation Company
Engineering company specialized in basic and detail design, procurement and construction of chemical and petrochemical projects, refineries, and power plants.
- State Company for Industrial Design & Construction
Engineering company specialized in construction projects. It has implemented about 800 industrial projects and production lines in Iraq.
- State Company for Information Systems
An information systems and computer company focused on specialized software development and information technology. The company performs special projects using advanced techniques. The company implements hardware and software development, training services, and networks.
- General Commission for Industrial Research & Development
Performing research and development activities for industrial production, the company consists of 11 different research centers on structures, glass, agriculture, foods, pharmaceuticals, chemicals, petrochemicals, and fertilizers.
- General Systems Company
A solution-provider company whose main fields include control systems, SCADA systems, communication systems, industrial electronics, and information technology.

Sector Coordinator: Sufyan Siddiq
Email: utilities@iraqiindustry.com
Telephone: (9641) 816-2006 Ext.1189