

Table 784. College Graduates by Education and Occupation: 1993 and 2003

[In percent, except as noted. S&E stands for science and engineering. College graduates includes individuals with degrees at the bachelor level or higher]

Field and occupation	1993	2003	Field and occupation	1993	2003
All college graduates (1,000)	29,021	40,621	S&E-related or non-S&E occupations . .	78	77
S&E occupations	11	12	Not employed	16	17
S&E-related or non-S&E occupations	71	69	Non-S&E degrees only (1,000)	15,723	21,395
Not employed	18	20	S&E occupations	3	3
S&E degrees only (1,000)	7,153	10,118	S&E-related or non-S&E occupations . .	78	75
S&E occupations	30	31	Not employed	19	21
S&E-related or non-S&E occupations . .	52	50	Degrees in more than one broad
Not employed	18	19	field ¹ (1,000)	3,676	5,568
S&E-related degrees only (1,000)	2,469	3,540	S&E occupations	11	12
S&E occupations	6	6	S&E-related or non-S&E occupations . .	76	72
			Not employed	13	16

¹ S&E, S&E-related, and non-S&E.

Source: U.S. National Science Foundation, National Survey of College Graduates: 1993 and 2003.