

D. Recipients of this Award agree to participate in programs, meetings, and/or other collaborative efforts with the Commission for the purpose of publicizing the award-winning program/effort, and agree to share information to assist other entities seeking to replicate the program/effort. Recipients agree to take part in Commission efforts to promote the "Freedom to Compete" Award and the principles of free and fair workplace competition that underlie the award.

Nomination Submission Requirements

This is an essay format (1,000 words or less) application. Programs/activities must have been in place for at least one year and have measurable and demonstrable results.

Essays should include the following:

- A profile of your organization—its mission, size, number of employees, nature of work, and, if a business, a description of its products/services, assets and annual revenues.
- A description of what led you to implement the program/practice.
- How you went about developing the program/practice. Describe who was involved, how it evolved, whether any major obstacles were encountered and how they were overcome, and how long the program/practice has been in place.
- A description of the program/practice. Explain the structure of the program/practice, how it is managed and measured, and who is accountable for results.
- Describe the level of executive involvement in, and commitment to, the program/practice during both development and implementation.
- A description of the tangible results. Explain what makes your program/practice effective, and how it has positively affected the lives of your workers. Address how the program/practice has helped to bring about free and fair competition in your workplace.
- A description of the joint activities your organization and the EEOC could undertake to share the program/effort with other entities and to promote the principles of free and fair workplace competition in partnership. Explain why others would find your program valuable.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

OMB Control No.: 3060-0093.

Title: Application for Renewal of Radio Station License for Multipoint Distribution Service.

Form No: FCC Form 405.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Business or other for-profit.

Number of Respondents: 2,494.

Estimated Time Per Response: 2.25 hours.

Frequency of Response: On occasion reporting requirement.

Total Annual Burden: 5,612 hours.

Total Annual Cost: $1,048,000.

Needs and Uses: FCC Form 405 is now being used by Multipoint Distribution Service (MDS) to apply for renewal of radio station licenses at the FCC. As a result of the Schedule S rulemaking, earth stations will file the new FCC Form 312-R in lieu of the FCC Form 405 to request renewals of their licenses. The FCC Form 312-R contains all of the data elements of the currently approved FCC Form 405. However, the name was changed to identify that the form is filed by earth station licenses for license renewals only. Additionally, the FCC Form 312-R is filed on the International Bureau Filing System (IBFS). The FCC Form 405 is available on the electronic Broadcast Licensing System (BLS) utilized by licensees and/or by the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau staff.

OMB Control No.: 3060-0292.
