Schedule 76

Federal Recycling Program

Printed on Recycled Paper

When you need information quickly, turn to GSA's Schedule 76 — Publications Media, your one-stop source for research and information. Whether it's a particular book, magazine, newspaper or report you want, there's a good chance that you will find exactly what you need! Our Schedule 76 is also your key to valuable online databases that provide you with convenient access to a wealth of instantly accessible data, including technical specifications, business data and medical information.

Schedule 76 is the perfect avenue for high-quality, thorough research because it links you directly to resources offering thousands of reports, from a wide variety of publishers in a vast array of markets and specialized industries.

Equally important to having quick access and top resources is the ability to get the information you want in the format you need. Schedule 76 delivers to meet this need by offering data in hard copy, on a CD or DVD, and via online access.

Schedule 76 is also where you'll find maps, specialized mailing lists, online desk references, and professional periodical and journal subscription services for aviation, legal, scientific, medical and engineering disciplines, among many others.

You'll always be able to count on Schedule 76 vendors to supply hard copy or electronic information on demand — quickly and reliably. They are familiar with government regulatory requirements and will work with you to understand and meet your unique information needs. Plus, our vendors on this Schedule are leaders in published material, as well as electronic media information services. Some of them are even the world's largest mega-bookstores.

So think of Schedule 76 — Publications Media — as "Information Central" and your trusted partner when you need information to do your job, or complete your mission!

Disaster Recovery Purchasing DISAST RECOV (Section 833)

Disaster Recovery Purchasing makes all GSA Multiple Award Schedules available to all state and local governments to enable them to respond and assist in the recovery from a disaster.

State and local governmental entities may use GSA Schedule contracts to purchase products and services in advance of a major disaster declared by the president, as well as in the aftermath of an emergency event. State and local governmental entities are responsible for ensuring that the products or services purchased are to be used to facilitate recovery.

This is a voluntary program for Schedule contract holders and state and local governments.

All GSA Multiple Award Schedule contracts are open to state and local government agencies for the specific purpose of disaster recovery only.
