CPSC, Sauder Woodworking Co. Announce Recall of Television Carts

WASHINGTON, D.C. – In cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), Sauder Woodworking Co. of Archbold, Ohio is recalling about 2 million television carts. The carts can tip over and injure children and adults when the cart and television fall.

Sauder has received 13 reports of these carts tipping over and the television falling. Two injuries have been reported. A 3-year-old girl suffered a skull fracture, and an adult woman suffered a bump to the head and a cut finger.

The television carts being recalled are brown oak (model 5155), black oak (model 5055), or white oak (model 5251). The television carts are pictured below. The model number is not on the cart, but it is on the instruction booklet that came with the cart. Most of the carts have the name "Sauder" on the casters or on a metal plate on the inside of the cart's doors. The carts measure 29.5 inches wide, 25 inches high with casters and 15.5 inches deep. The carts can hold a television and a VCR. The shelf holding the television swivels, and there is a bottom shelf with hinged double doors.

Discount stores, home centers, and other furniture stores nationwide sold these television carts from March 1989 through September 1998 for $35 - $49. The carts were sold ready-to-assemble.

Consumers should remove their televisions and VCRs from the carts immediately and call Sauder toll free at (888) 800-4590. Sauder will help identify if their cart is part of the recall, and send them a free repair kit. The repair kit will prevent the cart from tipping over.

Possible Talking Points for Sauder Recall

The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission is announcing the recall of about 2 million television carts manufactured by Sauder Woodworking Company. The carts can tip over and injure children and adults when the cart and the television fall.

We know of 13 reports of these carts tipping over and the television falling. And we know of two injuries- a 3-year-old girl suffered a skull fracture, and an adult woman suffered a bump to the head and a cut finger.

Now let's take a look at these television carts. The recalled carts come in 3 colors: brown oak, black oak and white oak. As you can see, the carts can hold a television and a VCR. And all the recalled carts have a bottom shelf with hinged double doors. The name Sauder appears inside the bottom shelf and also on the wheels.

* Now the problem is that these carts are very (tippy) and can tip over when the cart is being moved or even if you put pressure on the door. As you can see in this video tape, when you put some pressure on the door the cart tips over and the television set falls. And just imagine if your child were sitting in front of this television cart watching television!

unstable

If you have one of these Sauder carts you must remove the television and VCR at once. Then call Sauder at (888)800-4590. Sauder will send out a free repair kit. The repair is easy to do at home and will help prevent the cart from tipping over.

These carts have been sold nationwide at discount stores, home centers and furniture stores from March 1989 through September 1998. They sold for about $35 to $49 dollars.

And I must tell you that Sauder has been an extremely cooperative company to work with on this recall.

CPSC is also investigating other television carts for possible tipover hazards and if there are any more recalls, you will be the first to know.

But check today to see if you have one of the 2 million Sauder television carts that are being recalled today. And don't turn off your television, just move your television to another spot until you get your Sauder cart repaired.

Good point - will make from feel better re CAP

Loren,

Take a look at this rewritten Soundbite for Chairman Brown...I spoke with Judith this morning to make sure I had the correct information on the injury. I wanted to try and rewrite this one more time because Potomac would like the Chairman to talk about the injury since they don't have video to cover this.

If you don't like this, we'll go back to what we had yesterday and the reporter can talk about the injury and incidents.

Please let me know ASAP...I need to give the Chairman her soundbite by noon today.

THANKS

Also, I will make my editorial comments to the video script and send it to you and Potomac later today.

110

WASHINGTON, D.C. - In cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), Sauder Woodworking Co., of Archbold, Ohio, is recalling about 2 million television carts. The carts can tip over and injure children and adults when the cart and the television fall.

Sauder has received 13 reports of these carts tipping over and the television falling. Two injuries have been reported. A 3-year-old girl suffered a skull fracture, and an adult woman suffered a bump to the head and a cut finger.

The television carts being recalled are brown oak (model 5155), black oak (model 5055) or white oak (model 5251). The model number is not on the cart, but it is on the instruction booklet that came with the cart. Most of the carts have the name "Sauder" on the casters or on a metal plate on the inside of the cart's door. The carts measure 29.5 inches wide, 25 inches high with casters and 15.5 inches deep. The carts can hold a television and a VCR. The shelf holding the television swivels, and there is a bottom shelf with hinged double doors.

Discount stores, home centers and furniture stores nationwide sold these television carts from March 1989 through September 1998 for about $35 to $49. The carts were sold ready-to-assemble.

Consumers should remove their televisions and VCR's from the carts immediately and call Sauder toll-free at (888) 800-4590 between 7 a.m. and 11 p.m. EDT Monday through Friday. Sauder will help consumers identify if their cart is part of this recall, and send them a free repair kit. The repair kit will help prevent the cart from tipping over.
