MOTION OF PHASE I CLAIMANTS FOR PARTIAL DISTRIBUTION

The undersigned representatives of all the Phase I claimant categories to which Section 111 cable royalties have been allocated in prior cable distribution proceedings (“Phase I Parties”) submit the following motion to the Copyright Royalty Judges (“Judges”) for partial distribution of 50% of the 2006 cable royalty funds (the “2006 Funds”).

The Phase I Parties recognize that the partial distribution process takes over a month and that the Judges have many pending matters. Nevertheless, obtaining a distribution prior to October 31, 2008 is important to the Phase I Parties, some of whose fiscal years conclude in October. The Phase I Parties therefore respectfully request that the Judges distribute these funds as expeditiously as possible and, in any event, complete the distribution prior to October 31, 2008, or at least issue an order by that date indicating that a distribution will take place.

According to the Licensing Division of the Copyright Office (the “Office”), as of June 30, 2008, the amount of the 2006 Funds available for distribution totals approximately $145,980,555 and those funds are currently invested in securities that mature prior to September 4, 2008. Based on the June total of $145,980,555, a 50% partial distribution would approximate $72,990,277. The circumstances warrant a partial distribution of 50% of the 2006 Funds shortly after those investments mature, or as soon as the funds are able to be distributed.

I. The Copyright Royalty Judges Have Authority to Order Precontroversy Partial Distributions.

Section 111 of the Copyright Act favors the early distribution of cable royalties. See 17 U.S.C. § 111(d)(4)(B), (C). Chapter 8 of the Copyright Act vests the Judges with ample statutory authority to order the precontroversy distribution of cable royalties. In the Copyright Royalty Judges Program Technical Corrections Act, Congress amended Section 801(b)(3)(C) to clarify that a partial distribution of royalties could be made at any time after the filing of claims. Pub. L. No. 109-303 §§ 3, 5, 109th Cong., 2nd Sess. (2006), 120 Stat. 1478. Congress reaffirmed the Judges' authority to partially distribute statutory royalties in advance of the declaration of a controversy. Section 801(b)(3)(C) provides:

Notwithstanding section 804(b)(8), the Copyright Royalty Judges, at any time after the filing of claims under section 111 . . . may, upon motion of one or more of the claimants and after publication in the Federal Register of a request for responses to the motion from interested claimants, make a partial distribution of such fees, if, based upon all responses received during the 30-day period beginning on the date of such publication, the Copyright Royalty Judges conclude that no claimant entitled to receive such fees has stated a reasonable objection to the partial distribution, and all such claimants –

- (i) agree to the partial distribution;
- (ii) sign an agreement obligating them to return any excess amounts to the extent necessary to comply with the final determination on the distribution of the fees made under subparagraph (B);
- (iii) file the agreement with the Copyright Royalty Judges; and
- (iv) agree that such funds are available for distribution.

17 U.S.C. § 801(b)(3)(C). The statutorily prescribed deadline for filing claims for the 2006 Funds has passed. Furthermore, the Phase I Parties (1) agree to the partial distribution; (2) agree that the requested funds are available for distribution; (3) agree to sign the separate agreement contemplated in Section 801(b)(3)(C)(ii) obligating them to return any excess royalty amounts received, in a form to be provided by the Office or the Copyright Royalty Judges, in advance of the requested distribution; and (4) agree to file such an agreement with the Copyright Royalty Judges or as otherwise directed.

II. Distribution of 50% of the 2006 Funds is Warranted.

A partial distribution of 50% of the 2006 Funds would ensure that Phase I Parties are not deprived of a substantial amount of the royalties that belong to them during a period that may be several years long. In the past, the Copyright Office recognized that the earliest possible receipt of the maximum available royalties by copyright owners is an important objective of the Copyright Act. See, e.g., Order in Docket Nos. 94 CARP (92-CD & 93-CD) at 2 & 5 (September 26, 1994) (“September 26, 1994 Order”) (Office distributed 80% of the 1992 and 1993 cable royalties, noting that “the intent of the law favored early distribution”); see also Order in Docket No. 94 CARP (92-CD & 93-CD) at 2 (September 12, 1994) (“September 12, 1994 Order”) (referring to the “overall intent of the subparagraphs in [Section 111(d)(4)] in favor of early distributions”). Accordingly, pre-proceeding distributions of cable royalties under Section 111(d)(4)(C) may be made upon a determination that there might be an “unusual delay” between the filing of claims and the initiation of proceedings. See, e.g., September 12, 1994 Order at 2; September 26, 1994 Order at 2 (noting that the “decision to make a precontroversy distribution was based on the fact that there could be an unusual delay in advance of declaring a controversy, between the collection of the royalties and the expected initiation of the proceedings”); see also Order in Docket No. 2007-3 CRB CD 2004-2005 (Apr. 10, 2008) at 3-4.

Here, the Phase I Parties are seeking distribution of cable royalties that were deposited anywhere from 20 to 24 months ago. A distribution of at least 50% of the 2006 Funds would ensure that the Phase I Parties are not further deprived of a substantial amount of the royalties – over $72 million – that has been paid for the use of their copyrighted works. The Phase I Parties have agreed to the amount of the proposed partial distribution. Furthermore, the Phase I Parties believe that the undistributed amount and the parties’ commitment to repay any excess funds would be sufficient to satisfy all claims and proceedings.

Finally, the Phase I Parties request that the percentage share distributed to each Phase I Party be the same as that Party received for the year 1999 in the 1998-1999 Cable Royalty Distribution Proceeding, the last such proceeding conducted, as announced in the Library of Congress’ Order of January 26, 2004, In re Distribution of 1998 and 1999 Cable Royalty Funds, 69 Fed. Reg. 3606, 3620 (January 26, 2004), and affirmed by the United States Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit on May 31, 2005. Program Suppliers v. Librarian of Congress, 409 F.3d 365 (D.C. Cir. 2005). In the case of two claimant groups (NPR and the Devotionals), the percentage shares to be paid to them are the same shares as they received pursuant to the settlement among all Phase I Parties to the 1998-99 proceeding. The percentage shares of all the Phase I Parties are set forth in Attachment A.¹

CONCLUSION

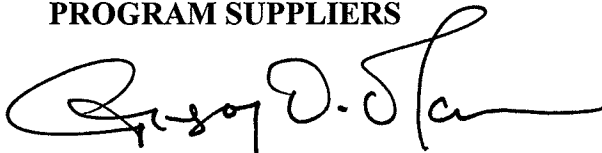

For the reasons set forth above, the Phase I Parties respectfully request that the Judges, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 801(b)(3)(C), publish for comment in the Federal Register the proposed partial distribution of 50% of the cable royalties contained in the 2006 Funds. Thereafter, the

Phase I Parties respectfully request that the Judges proceed to distribute these funds as expeditiously as possible and, in any event, complete the distribution prior to October 31, 2008, or at least issue an order by that date indicating that a distribution will take place.
