

Submission of Project Requests

- Link to Republican Leadership Certification Form

To comply with Republican Leadership earmark standards, Republican Members must submit the above form, completed for each request, to the Republican staff office in 2163 Rayburn House Office Building.

Click here for an explanation of the Republican Leadership's earmark compliance requirements.

- Link to Committee Database for submission of study and project requests for the Water Resources Development Act of 2008 (WRDA).  Note: This link is only accessible via a House of Representatives computer.

All Members must also electronically enter each WRDA 2008 study or project request via the above linked database. Hard copy submissions of these requests to the Committee's Clerk are also required.

Click here for an explanation of the use of this database and hard copy submission requirements.
