

WATER MANAGEMENT SECTION'S
WEEKLY BASIN REPORT
FOR
December 30, 2008

---

PASCAGOULA

Okatibbee- 6 AM pool near 339.39 ft. Discharging 300 cfs.

---

BWT

Coffeeville- 6 AM tailwater near 19.1 ft. Six gates open at 6 feet. (0.0 TW required for project depth).

---

TENN-TOM

Fulton- 6 AM stage near 15.1 ft. No gates open at Montgomery.

---

ACT

Allatoona- 6 AM pool near 825.1 ft. Forecast near 824.6 next week.

Carters- 6 AM pool near 1074.6ft. Forecast near 1071 next week.

R. F. Henry- 6 AM pool near 124 ft. Forecast near 125.4 next week.

Millers Ferry- 6 AM pool near 80.1 ft. Forecast near 80 next week.

Claiborne- 6 AM tailwater near 20.2 ft. (7.9 ft required for 9-foot navigation channel.)

---

ACF

Buford- 6 AM pool near 1053 ft. Forecast near 1053 next week.

West Point- 6 AM pool near 630.4 ft. Forecast near 629.6 next week.

George- 6 AM pool near 188.8 ft. Forecast near 188.5 next week.

Woodruff- 6 AM pool near 76.9 ft with a tailwater near 44.4 ft. Pool forecast near 77 ft next week. Discharging 15,000 cfs today.

Blountstown- 6 AM stage near 6.8 ft this morning. Forecast to be in the 6-7.5 ft range next week. A 9 ft stage provides a 9 ft channel depth.

---

WEATHER

The 2009 New Year will begin on a dry note. However, a fairly significant rainfall event is on tap for next Tuesday Preliminary indications are that rainfall of 1 to 2...locally 3 inches... is likely across north Alabama and parts of northwest Georgia. Temperatures will oscillate greatly, which is characteristic of mid Winter.