

A message to our valued customers

To keep up with ever-increasing costs, the National Archives and Records Administration announces its first microform price increase since 1996. Effective October 1, 2005, the price of National Archives black-and-white microfilm is $65 per roll; foreign orders are $68 per roll. The new price for color microfilm is $82, with foreign orders priced at $85 per roll. Microfiche prices are not affected. We regret any inconvenience.

Order before October 1, and save on your next microform purchase.
