Potential Lull-Breaking Strategies

If you need a "hook," try connecting the NPHPSP to…	Might work if the concern is…	Worth exploring?
1. Broader health improvement planning processes like MAPP	Relevance	☐
2. State and local strategic priorities that have traction (specific health issues, preparedness, emphasis on partnerships, etc.)	Motivation Leadership support	☐
3. Categorical assessments and requirements	Motivation Sustainability (staff/$)	☐
4. Annual reports or report cards (Healthy People 2010, department, Kids Count, etc.)	Timeliness Relevance	☐
5. Timely issues in the news or anniversaries of events relevant to the NPHPSP	Timeliness Relevance	☐
6. Annual association meetings and conferences	Timeliness Relevance Leadership support	☐
7. Active coalitions, task forces, or associations that may be willing to "adopt" a related EPHS	Sustainability (staff/$) Relevance	☐
8. Other performance management or quality improvement efforts underway in the community, agency, or executive office	Relevance Leadership support	☐
9. Funding eligibility or incentives	Motivation Sustainability (staff/$)	☐
10. Policy requirements or incentives	Motivation	☐

Other potential strategies	Might work if the concern is…	Worth exploring?
11. Report progress on accomplishments; share feedback or updates with sites/participants	Information Motivation	☐
12. Offer training or coaching to coordinators or work group members	Workforce competence or confidence	☐
13. Assign new accountable entities and staff; shift resources and priorities to enable follow-up	Sustainability (staff/$)	☐
14. Collaborate with partners on funding proposals to address priorities	Sustainability (staff/$)	☐

Potential Lull-Breaking Strategies

Other potential strategies	Might work if the concern is…	Worth exploring?
15.		☐
16.		☐
17.		☐
18.		☐
19.		☐
20.		☐

Notes: