How Should We Manage Your National Forest?

How can we better balance fuels reduction, forest health, wildlife habitat, and water quality?

The U.S. Forest Service Lake Tahoe Basin Management Unit (LTBMU) is asking you to help us determine how at public workshops on November 3, & November 12, 2008.

After a short background presentation, breakout groups will focus on determining how the revised LTBMU Forest Plan can meet this challenge.

Public workshop details:

Monday, November 3, 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.: Wildlife Habitat

Wednesday, November 12, 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.: Water Quality

Both meetings will be held on the south shore, at the Forest Supervisor's Office-Emerald Bay Room, 35 College Drive, South Lake Tahoe, CA.
