The suspended portion of the judgment shall be subject to the conditions set forth in Subsection B of this Paragraph V.
- B. The Commission's agreement to this Order with Defendant Henriksen is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness of the sworn financial statements and supporting documents for Michael Henriksen dated 9-17-2004, provided to the Commission by Defendant Henriksen, the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of which was attested to by Defendant Henriksen on that date. These documents contain material information upon which the Commission has relied in negotiating and agreeing to this Order. Defendant Henriksen agrees that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true in any subsequent litigation filed by the Commission to enforce its rights pursuant to this Order, including, but not limited to, a non-dischargeability complaint filed in any bankruptcy proceeding.

- F. Proceedings instituted under this Paragraph are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law, including any other proceedings the Commission may initiate to enforce this Order.

In the event that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or that funds remain after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendant's practices alleged in the Complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited to the United States Treasury as disgorgement. Defendant shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Paragraph.
