To Whom It May Concern:

I must say in regard to your recently proposed FACTA Prescreen Rule, project NO. R411010. that I really like the idea quite much so, and support it one hundred percent.

At this very moment as I am speaking to you there are millions of people receiving unwanted credit card and insurance solicitations. They are pouring into peoples mail boxes and PO boxes, these people being helpless to stop them, in complete distress and agony relying on you and you alone to stop this despicable, unwanted flow of credit card and insurance solicitations. So, the questions are will this system work? Are there loop holes in the system? in short can you save the American public from drowning in a sea of junk mail?

Sincerely,
