USA.gov
Government Made Easy

Fast Facts about www.USA.gov

★ USA.gov is the only comprehensive source of official government information.

★ USA.gov gives the public access to federal, state, local, territorial, and tribal government websites and resources.

★ USA.gov provides you with online government services, news, and images.

★ USA.gov provides you with access to information in Spanish through GobiernoUSA.gov.

★ Search results from USA.gov are grouped in relevant categories and based on popular demand—not on paid advertisements or blogs.

★ USA.gov automatically takes you to the right government page—you don't need to know which agency to contact.

★ USA.gov gives you access to information that you need at every age—whether you're 1 or 100.

★ Visitors to USA.gov can access all information 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year.

★ Visitors to USA.gov can e-mail questions and comments in English and/or Spanish for a response within two business days.

★ Visitors can get online personal assistance from 12 noon to 8 p.m. ET Monday through Friday.

★ Visitors to USA.gov can sign up for free e-mail alerts when new content is added to USA.gov's most popular pages.

★ USA.gov offers free RSS feeds to keep visitors on top of government news and information.

★ There is no advertising on USA.gov.

★ USA.gov is free.

A few things you can do on www.USA.gov

★ Shop at government auctions
★ Find government benefits
★ Apply for a government job
★ Get help buying a car or home
★ Get a passport
★ Apply for Social Security
★ Protect yourself against identity theft
★ Register to vote
★ Learn about financial planning
★ E-file your taxes
★ See if the government owes you money
★ Learn how to do business in the U.S. from abroad
★ Reserve a campsite at a national park
★ Learn what not to take on airplanes
★ Check your lottery number
★ Find a college or scholarship
★ Find homework resources
★ Find state and local goverments
★ Contact your elected officials
★ Get a driver's license

And hundreds more...