1.) A.4 STATEMENT OF WORK, add the following:

"A Revised Scope of Work
Integrated Vector Management Task Order
GHS-I-01-03-00028

This Revised scope of Work is an addition to the Scope of Work defined in the IVM Request for Task Order Proposals of March 17, 2004 and is limited to the description of additional activities to be implemented under the original scope of work. The intent of the original task order to maximize the use of sub-contracts is maintained in this additional scope of work, although it is recognized that the increased level of activity will result in a need for increased level of effort by the project manager and administrative person.

Additional Activities:

1. establish operational platform for expanded technical assistance by USAID for Indoor Residual Spraying (IRS) programs in 4 countries in sub-Saharan Africa (including Angola), including:
 - a) finalization of the Programmatic Environmental Assessment for IVM;
 - b) conduct and publication of a cost-effectiveness review comparing IRS and insecticide-treated nets (ITNs) in a variety of eco-epidemiological settings in sub-Saharan Africa;
 - c) development and production of standard training protocols and materials for an IVM approach to IRS implementation.
2. implement (via sub-contracts) the provision of technical assistance for IVM approach to IRS implementation in 4 countries in sub-Saharan Africa (including Angola), including:
 - a) provision of expert consultants for training and assessment;
 - b) operational support in training, equipment and software;
 - c) data collection for monitoring and impact evaluation.
3. implement a larval control intervention in at least one urban area of an African country (likely Uganda);
4. provide expert entomological assistance to the Amazon Malaria Initiative;
5. support the strengthening of a regional technical assistance capacity in southern Africa for the support of IRS programs using an IVM approach via internships;

II. Insert additional activities in the Statement of Work.

1) A.4 STATEMENT OF WORK, Add the following:

"Revised Scope of Work
Integrated Vector Management Task Order
GHS-I-01-03-00028-00

This revised scope of work is an addition to the scope of work defined in the IVM Request for Task Order Proposals of March 17, 2004 and the additional scope of work described in modification #4 to that task order of September 15, 2005. The current modified scope of work is limited to the description of additional activities to be implemented under the original scope of work.

Additional Activities:

1. Plan and implement Indoor Residual Spraying (IRS) programs in 3 countries in sub-Saharan Africa (including Angola (Round 2), Tanzania/Zanzibar and Uganda), including, but not limited to, the following specific activities required for the quality implementation of the IRS activities:
 - a. conduct and document for USAID and host-country approval (where appropriate) an environmental review as specified by 22 CFR 216;
 - b. identify local representatives and sub-contractors and enter into the necessary sub-contracts/agreements with them to ensure quality and timely implementation;
 - c. conduct appropriate and necessary background data collection to provide essential information on vector species, behavior and insecticide susceptibility, as well as on other local factors important in the choice of insecticides for use in IRS;
 - d. coordinate with the host country National Malaria Control Plan (NMCP) in the design of the IRS activity, including geographic area, population, and technical design;
 - e. develop and produce standard training protocols and materials for IRS implementation and train spray teams in high quality IRS implementation in accordance with internationally-accepted WHO guidelines;
 - f. design and oversee implementation of appropriate IEC campaigns to inform the target population and maximize compliance with the IRS campaign;
 - g. train, implement, and document in written form appropriate monitoring and evaluation activities to determine impact of the IRS activities.

2. In order to ensure an orderly and efficient process of planning and follow-up to the first round in the Angola IRS activity, this task order will also include the second round IRS activity in Angola, anticipated to take place in October 2006. Hence, this task order will be extended to March 31, 2007."

III. Increase the task order ceiling price from [REDACTED] by [REDACTED] to [REDACTED]

1) COVER PAGE, 9. ACCOUNTING AND APPROPRIATION DATA, delete ceiling price of [REDACTED] and replace with [REDACTED]
