Welcome to your new Tax Hints

This is the first edition of Tax Hints (Publication 4437) in its new format. It features a new approach to this online newsletter for tax professionals: beginning with this edition, Publication 4437 will be updated frequently, year-round.

If developments occur after the latest edition has been posted that are of significance to the tax professional community, a revision will be posted. The date of the current revision will always be on this front page in the upper right corner, and previous editions will be listed in the Tax Hints Archive and in the Quick Links in the right column of this page.

Tax Hints provides most information through HTML

links to irs.gov websites and other electronic information sources, so you always have access to the most up to date information, gathered, as always, in this one convenient downloadable document.

To the right you'll see a list of quick links we thought would be useful to you. If there are others you'd like to see, please let us know: Suggestions are always welcome.

Below "Quick Links" you will find "Recent News". These links will take you to events and activities that will affect your world and your business, one click away.

The more than 60 million taxpayers who opt to direct deposit their federal income tax refunds can also split their refunds among up to three checking or savings accounts. This option is available regardless of whether taxpayers file electronically or on paper.
